Nazi Raid On Convoy Is Defeated MARKET AGREEMENTS TERMINATED DUE TO VALLEY REFERENDUM

FOUR PLANES ARE DOWNED BY BRITISH

Air Battle Is Staged Over North Sea

LONDON —(P)— British fighting planes which raced Saturday to answer the call of a ship convoy being attacked from the air were reported Saturday night to have defeated the German attacking squadron.

Official accounts of the air battle over the North Sea said three of the 12 German attackers were shot down and a fourth forced to retreat at sea by fire from the planes and escort vessels of the convoy. The type of ships being convoyed and their destination was not given, but it was stated none was damaged.

In London Britain's War Secretary, Leslie Hore-Belisha, declared that further eastward expansion of Germany had been blocked by Russia and Turkey and he warned that a mass attack by the Germans to break the western land and sea blockade would be a costly venture.

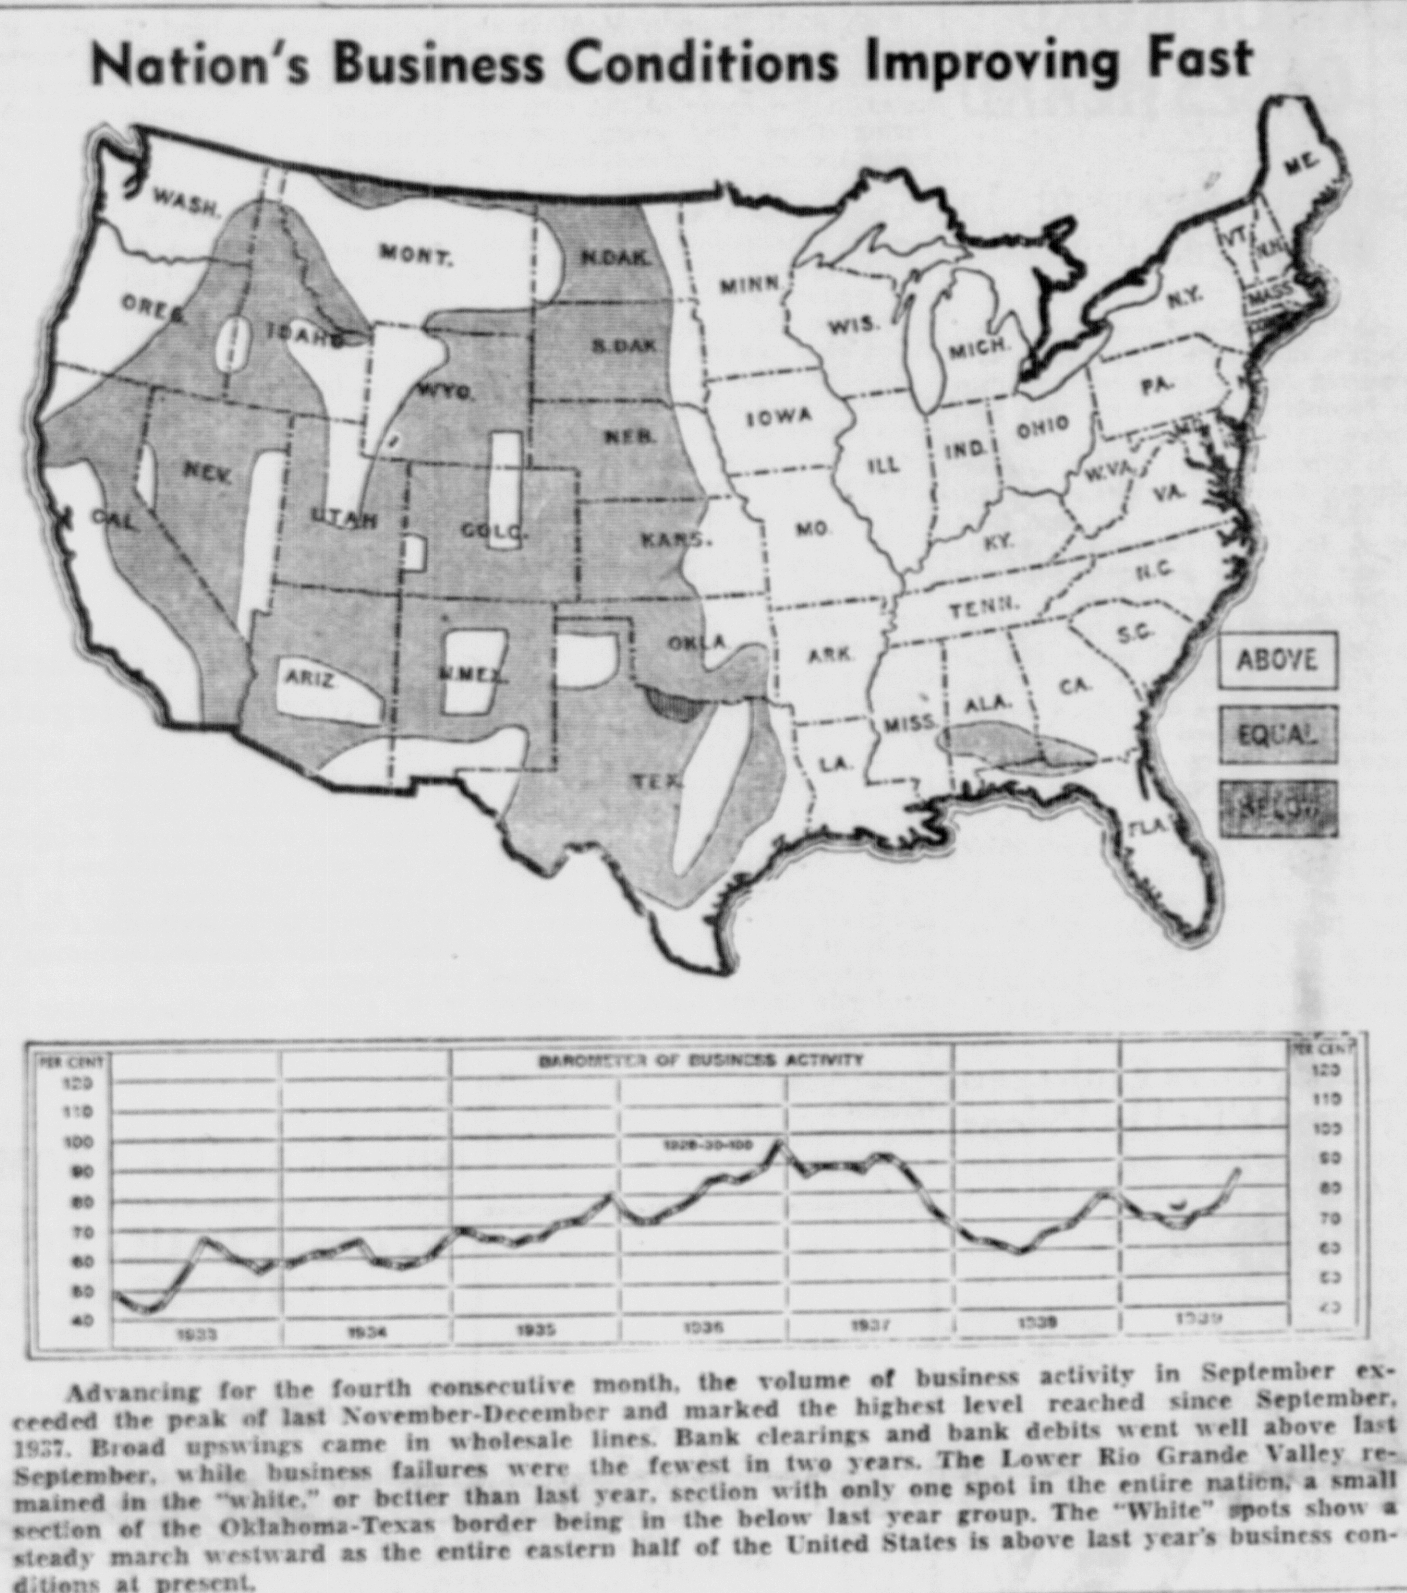

Hore-Belisha indicated that the Allies would use "winning war" tactics to fight Germany.

The battle took place a short time before the war minister declared in a broadcast that Germany would "pay dearly" in any mass attack to break the western land and sea blockade.

The German raiding planes "were engaged by fighters and escort vessels," officials said. "At least three enemy aircraft were brought down by four fighters. A fourth raider after receiving intensive fire from our aircraft was forced to land on the sea."

At 2 p. m. two unidentified air planes were sighted off the east coast of England and a half-hour alarm was sounded in the Hull and Grimsby areas, another communication said. While asserting that fighter planes were sent up to intercept them, the statement did not say whether contact was made.

Meanwhile, in Wales, David Lloyd George again urged that Britain consider the possibility of an international conference to settle the conflict and said such a policy was entirely consistent with "no surrender" to Germany.

GARNER ASKS BALLOT SOON ON EMBARGO

Texan Is Impatient Over Delay

WASHINGTON —(P)— Vice President Garner, impatient over long-drawn-out speechmaking on the administration neutrality bill, was reported Saturday to be exerting his influence to secure a final vote next week.

Friends said that Garner, who has given wholehearted support to President Roosevelt's recommendation that the arms embargo be repealed, believed that the three weeks of debate had been ample and that opposition senators now should accept a limitation on future debate.

The Vice President advised Majority Leader Barkley (D-Ky.), it was said, to ask the Senate to agree to a restriction on debate. If that is not accepted, Garner was quoted as saying, then the leadership should call the Senate into session at 10 a. m. each day and delay adjournment until 10 p. m. The chamber usually meets at noon and quills about 5 p. m.

NAZI RAIDS MAY BRING BRITISH ACT

WITH THE BRITISH Royal Air Force somewhere in France, it was reported Saturday by the British Royal Air Force that it may soon be ordered to abandon their leaflet warfare and go into bombing attacks for the first time since the first week of the war if German air raids continue on Scotland.

It was reported Saturday night that the situation on the western front may soon demand swift concentration of first line aircraft for a mass raid on military objectives in or near the German lines.

The actual decision to abandon leaflet warfare and fill the bomb-racks with explosives is a matter of high policy and would be taken by the British cabinet in consultation with the French.

FRUIT PRICE GROUP CALLS MONDAY MEET

Session To Be Held In Weslaco

WESLACO — A meeting of the Valley Fruit Stabilization Committee will be held here Monday afternoon at the GIC office in an attempt to determine some method of bolstering fruit prices.

This committee was formed after discussions Thursday night during a mass meeting of 300 growers at the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo school auditorium. At that meeting it was decided that any effort to stabilize fruit prices should be made through the same men who composed the GIC and SMC, although they could not and would not act in their official capacity in any action they might take.

The committee is headed by W. G. Rice, San Juan, who also is GIC chairman. Rice explained there was no connection between the two groups other than the fact that the committee was drawn from the two marketing committees which have served thus far under state and federal citrus marketing agreements.

Committee membership includes Rice as chairman, Owen Council, Mission; Ralph Smith, La Feria; and H. H. Banker, Brownsville, from the GIC; and with A. L. Cramer, Engelman Gardens, and Jack Williams, Pharr, from the SMC.

All phases of the present situation, including the effect of the Saturday decision to dissolve the two administrative committees, will be discussed at the Monday meeting. It is expected some definite statement will be forthcoming from the committee Monday afternoon.

Meanwhile Rice asked Valley newspapers to urge growers not to become panicky and not to sell their fruit until they learned its true value. He urged growers to acquaint themselves with all the facts before selling their fruit at low prices.

FRENCH GUNS SHELL NAZIS

Artillery Fires On 20 Mile Area

PARIS —(P)— Military observers Saturday night reported French heavy artillery had methodically shelled an area of 20 square miles on the extreme northern sector of the western front, hoping to drop a big shell on German general headquarters.

A communication described the fire as "harassing."

From military information made public in Paris, it appeared that German gun positions formed a rectangle bounded on the south-west by heights at Nennung and Sinz (five miles within German territory) and on northeast by heights at Wincheringen and Saarbourg.

Within this rectangle lies the Castle Thorn, where French aerial observers have reported the constant coming and going of officers and staff cars, leading to the belief that German headquarters have been established there.

A night communication said German artillery had begun answering French fire. The German batteries have been quiet for the past few days and were apparently provoked into action, a duel by the continued French shelling.

British Prepare For Nazi Attacks

On Western Front

WITH THE BRITISH Expeditionary Force in France (Passed By Censor)—(P)— Britain's war efforts began to take shape Saturday as thousands of tanks rolled and rumbled over cobbles and stone roads in northern France.

The number of British troops on French soil rose slowly but steadily toward a quarter of a million and defenses which looked skimpy and undermanned not long ago bristled with guns and men.

Battle lines were "fully manned," one officer said, and satisfaction over men and materials has replaced conjecture of ten days ago on whether the defense would be strong enough to hold advancing Germans.

The artillery has been augmented in the last week. "Heavy stuff" rolls daily along roads and gunners feel they have enough ammunition to break up any attacks.

WAR ON SEAS IS RESUMED

Four New Ships Are Reported Sunk

By The Associated Press

The war on the seas, after a two-day lull, was renewed suddenly and furiously Saturday as four ships were reported sunk by torpedoes, mines and unexplained explosions and German planes attacked a British North Sea convoy.

The sinking sent the known loss of ships of all nations to 81 and the gross tonnage to 366,002.

The 701-ton Este, a German coast guard vessel, struck three Nazi mines near the Island of Moen, Denmark, sending the ship to the bottom with a loss of 71 lives. Danish officials said one of their naval planes rescued four sailors and recovered one body.

The Este casualties and an official report that 67 died when the British steamers City of Mandalay and Yorkshire were torpedoed in the Atlantic last Tuesday sent the known death toll in the sea warfare to 1,732.

Rumania's first loss came with the unexplained sinking of the 6,394-ton oil tanker Oltenia near Gibraltar as she was carrying Rumanian oil to England. The fate of her crew was undetermined.

The Rumanian report indicated that a German U-boat was to blame.

The English-Rumanian oil trade was struck also by the destruction of the Norwegian oil tanker Deodatta, 3,295 gross tons. Her sinking by an "explosion" was disclosed when 23 crew members arrived in England on a British steamer. It was neutral Norway's eighth loss in the war.

The Swedish freighter Gustaf Adolf, 925 tons, was torpedoed north of the Shetland Islands. Her crew of 19 was rescued by the Norwegian Steamer Bliscia. This sent neutral losses to 27.

The known toll of other nations: Britain—38; Germany—10; France—6.

Demand Voice

Italians Insist On Balkan Interest

ROME —(P)— Italy's determination to maintain her interests in the Balkans in spite of the new situation created by the Turkish-British-French mutual aid treaty was authoritatively asserted Saturday night.

"Nothing may be attempted or done in the Balkans without Italy," wrote Virginia Gayda, the editor who often expresses the views of the Fascist regime.

Italy also moved to eliminate a possible source of friction with her axis partner by concluding a pact with Germany for the transfer of 200,000 German-speaking residents of the Italian Tyrol—won from Austria in the World War—to the Reich.

Neutral observers interpreted the Italian insistence on a voice in the Balkans future as due to a desire to prevent the war spreading to that zone or the Mediterranean.

BRITAIN, FRANCE TO LOAN $200,000,000 TO TURKEY

ANKARA —(P)— Britain and France were reported in reliable quarters Saturday night to have followed up their mutual assistance pact with Turkey with a 60,000,000 pound credit (about $240,000,000).

The western powers, it was reported, would advance 25,000,000 pounds (about $100,000,000) of this sum in the form of arms and ammunition to enable Turkey immediately to strengthen her position as a guardian of the Dardanelles, gateway to the Black Sea.

Foreign Minister Sakur Saracoglu, returning from Moscow after three weeks of unsuccessful negotiations for a Turkish-Soviet Russian pact, reported to President Ismet Inonu and the Turkish cabinet. He gave them, unofficial sources said, details of Russia's demand that the Dardanelles be closed to British warships, which was reported to have caused the breakdown of negotiations.

Russia Labels Self Black Sea Protector

MOSCOW —(P)— Russia served notice Saturday that "the greatest Black Sea power" she "must keep a watchful eye on everything" related to the Turkey-controlled Dardanelles, despite the British-French-Turkish pact.

The government newspaper Izvestia's bitter attacks on the tri-power treaty, terming it an unsuccessful attempt to drive a wedge between Germany and the U.S.S.R., made diplomats wonder what effect the pact would have on Finnish-Russo negotiations which resume Monday.

Chinese Trio Slain In Shanghai Fight

SHANGHAI —(Sunday)— Three Chinese, one of them a policeman, were killed and an unidentified number of men were wounded Sunday in a miniature battle along the border of the international settlement.

The fighting stopped only when steel-helmeted Japanese police arrived and threw a cordon around the area.

State Solon Enters Guilty Plea In Case

WEATHERFORD —(P)— State Representative Rawlins Colquitt of Dallas, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated and was given a one year suspended prison sentence Saturday.

The charge against the legislator was filed in 1938 after an automobile collision on the highway between Weatherford and Mineral Wells.

FINNISH GROUP LEAVES FOR MOSCOW PARLAYS

HELSINKI —(P)— With the melancholy "Song of Finland" echoing through Helsinki Station, the Finnish delegation left Saturday night for Moscow to deliver a firm answer and counter-proposals to Soviet Russian demands for more power in the Baltic.

Informed quarters said a decision on the future of the negotiations might be reached by Tuesday.

Harlingen Firemen Put Out Two Fires

HARLINGEN—Local fire department men did two runs here Saturday, with minor loss as result of each blaze.

Small fire was started about 2:48 a. m. at McBride's Coffee Shop on South Second street, from grease on a stove.

At 1:23 p. m. Saturday firemen were called to a fire in a house car on North B street beyond Washington avenue, where fire of undetermined origin did small damage. The house car was owned by O. C. Smith.

WASHINGTON —(P)—The state department announced Saturday that Paul H. Demille of El Paso, Tex., vice consul at Monterey, Mexico, has been appointed vice consul at Victoria, B. C.

Matamoros Officers To Question Suspect

BROWNSVILLE—A Latin-American arrested Friday in Laredo and charged with illegal entry into the United States, will be brought to Brownsville late Sunday or Monday morning and turned over to Matamoros officials for questioning in connection with the killing of two Matamoros women recently.

The man is reported to have been implicated by Urbano Acosta and Inez Campos, now being held at the federal garrison in Matamoros, on charges of double homicide and robbery in connection with the slaying of the two women.

Nazi Ship Sails

Tanker May Be Used To Fuel Subs

MEXICO CITY —(P)— Foreign intelligence agents Saturday night were investigating reports that the German tanker Emmy Friedrich, which sailed from Tampico Friday night, would serve as a supply ship for German submarines operating in the western Atlantic.

The tanker carried a cargo of 39,000 barrels of American oil.

The Emmy Friedrich's clearance papers gave her port of destination as Malmo, Sweden, but diplomatic sources here heard reports that she would seek shelter in some tiny Central American or South American port.

There she could be free to fuel U-boats or sea raiders, which frequently have been reported in neighboring waters, and assist in repairs.

Sentence Given Man Indicted In Valley

HOUSTON—(P)—James Munson Tyler pleaded guilty here Saturday in the United States district court to charges that he falsely represented himself to be a traveling inspector of the United States Maritime Commission and a special representative of Vice President Garner.

Judge James V. Allred sentenced Tyler to 13 months in prison and added two more years as a suspended sentence.

Tyler was indicted here and in Brownsville. The Brownsville indictment was one of the two to which he pleaded guilty Saturday.

Geological Group Holds Annual Convention At Brownsville

VALLEY DATA IS GATHERED BY VISITORS

Sunday Trip Through Sector Planned

BROWNSVILLE—Valley data held the limelight Saturday at the 11th annual convention of the South Texas Geological Society held at the Hotel El Jardin here.

The society is a section of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists. There were 163 members, and 50 visitors present.

Four of the nine papers submitted before technical sessions of the convention dealt with Valley geological potentialities.

With a scarcity of literature heretofore dealing with the Valley's terrain, the geologists centered attention on the collection of data here for later dissemination.

Two Field Trips Made

Two field trips contributed to the store of Valley facts collected, one Friday from Laredo to the San Fordyce fields, and another leaving Sunday from here to Boca Chica northwestward to the Goliad formation near Edinburg.

The technical session Saturday heard the following papers:

"Revision of a Portion of the Areal Geology Along the Rio Grande Southeast of Laredo," J. M. Patterson, The Texas Company, San Antonio.

"Oil and Gas Fields of the Rio Grande Valley," Lee Smith, Sun Oil Company, Dallas.

"The San Fordyce Field, Hidalgo and Starr Counties," E. L. Earl, Fols Oil Company, and F. W. Mueller, Skelly Oil Company.

"Geological Work Shops and Show Rooms," Henry Ley, San Antonio, president of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

"Corpus Christi to Talk Association Affairs," Ed W. Owen, secretary-treasurer, American Association of Petroleum Geologists, San Antonio.

"Economics and Evaluation of the Oil and Gas Fields of South Texas," L. B. Herring, consulting geologist, Corpus Christi.

"Commercial Production of Synthetic Products from Natural Gas," Harold M. Smith, petroleum chemist, U. S. Bureau of Mines, Bartlesville, Okla.

"Soil Analysis with Particular Incidental Application to South Texas," Eugene McDermott, Geophysical Survey, Inc., Dallas.

Scheduled for Sunday at 8 a. m., immediately prior to the field trip to Boca Chica and up the Valley to Edinburg, was a talk by Dr. W. Armstrong Price, consulting geologist, Corpus Christi, on "Physiographic Mapping of the Quaternary Formations in the Rio Grande Delta."

The society will not elect its new officers until spring, and will not select a 1940 convention city until mid-1940.

Officials Listed

The present officers are: Willis Storm, San Antonio, president; Dale L. Benson, Corpus Christi, vice president; R. N. Kolm, San Antonio, secretary-treasurer; and W. A. Mailey, Corpus Christi, and E. L. Porch, San Antonio, members of the executive committee.

There was a sightseeing trip held for the ladies Saturday afternoon by the Brownsville Chamber of Commerce in and around Brownsville. The trip included a visit to the Brownsville airport and tour of the Pan American Airway hangars. A party was held Saturday night at Matamoros.

The field trip Sunday, to be led by Doctor Price, will take the group over the Quaternary formation of the Rio Grande Delta going south-east from Brownsville to Boca Chica and thence northwestward ending about sundown in the north-western part of Hidalgo county about 12 miles northwest of Edinburg on the Goliad (Pliocene) formation.

Friday's field trip, although starting from Laredo, began geographically on the Cook mountain (Eocene) formation and ended on the Oakville-Lagarto (Pliocene - Miocene) formation on the Starr-Hidalgo county line near San Fordyce.

The Roma and San Fordyce structures were crossed, and about 10 stops were made for examination and description of contacts.

Veterans Of Foreign Wars Parley Opens In McAllen

Oil Order Given

November Prorate Is Announced

AUSTIN—(AP)—November production of Texas oil will average 1,396,225 barrels daily on the basis of a state-wide proration order announced Saturday by Jerry Sadler, member of the Railroad Commission.

The average flow would be 47,775 barrels under the estimate of Texas demand made by the U. S. Bureau of Mines. Sadler added October average daily production would be 1,414,700 barrels or 30,000 below the bureau's estimate.

The new order does not differ essentially from October and calls for 11 shutdown days, four Saturdays, four Sundays and November 1, 15 and 30.

Facilities At McAllen Are Expanded

McALLEN—Intensification of efforts to bring smaller conventions to McAllen was urged Saturday by McAllen Chamber of Commerce officials in an appeal issued to citizens who are members of associations, trade groups, lodges, church organizations and other groups.

Addition of more rooms to the Casa de Palmas Hotel and expansion of dining rooms provide more facilities for handling conventions, they said.

Officials said that McAllen could now handle district, regional and other conventions having up to 200 delegates. Most such conventions, it was pointed out, come through work of local members. The chamber asked association members to "tip it off" on the possibility of seeking any convention.

MEETING SET BY SHIPPER GROUP, GIC

First Period Rules To Be Discussed

WESLACO—An advertised meeting of the Growers Industry Committee and of the Shippers Marketing Committee to discuss regulations of grapefruit and orange shipments for the period beginning October 29 and extending to November 25 will be held Wednesday.

The meeting was set some weeks ago and even though outcome of the referendum on the proposed new citrus marketing agreements were known, it would still be necessary to hold the meeting. It was stated, the present marketing agreements will remain operative until cancelled, but outcome of the federal referendum is not yet known.

The referendum on the state agreement, held jointly, showed the participating growers to be in favor by a three-to-one vote and most industry leaders expect that there will be little difference in the federal referendum, results of which will be announced probably early in the week.

The present agreements are to be cancelled regardless of the outcome of the referendum on the proposed new agreements but official action has not yet been taken.

Present regulations in effect restrict all grapefruit and orange shipments to U. S. No. 3 grade and better, seeded grapefruit to size 80 and larger and seedless grapefruit to size 86 and larger.

Nurses To Meet

Morning sessions will get under way at 10 o'clock, followed by a luncheon at 12:15 p. m., and Dr. Shafer's talk and others during the afternoon.

District 14 membership number 55, in the Valley area extending from Brownsville to Willacy and Hidalgo county.

SOUTH TEXAS GROUPS TO SET MEETING SITE

McALLEN—Convention of South Texas posts and auxiliaries of Veterans of Foreign Wars was opened here Saturday with total of 91 delegates in attendance. Officials expect some 200 will attend second and final day's events here Sunday.

A number of state and district officers were present, many of them making short talks before the convention group. Included in the list of officials were Mrs. Irene Kay Dodd of Dallas, state auxiliary president; Mrs. I. C. Shoop of Corpus Christi, district auxiliary president; Rex L. Vickery of Corpus Christi, district commander, and others. D. A. Dunlavy of Port Arthur, department commander, was unable to attend.

In addition to staging principal events of the two-day convention here Sunday, delegates will also select site of the next convention, to be held in April.

With R. N. Bounds, McAllen attorney, acting as toastmaster, Mayor Horace Etchison welcomed the delegates in the name of the city, assuring them that every convenience the city afforded would be placed at their disposal.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Paul T. Vickers in a brief and humorous speech likewise welcomed the visitors and expressed his appreciation for their choice of McAllen as a convention city.

McAllen Post Commander R. E. Slocum and Auxiliary President Miss Carrie Ohlson also made short welcoming addresses.

During the banquet piano music was furnished by Mrs. Faye Jones with Bill Doyle, accompanied by Mrs. Doyle, giving several vocal selections. Jean Scales, local dancing instructor, did routine dance numbers with Miss Norma Britain playing the piano accompaniment.

Sunday's sessions for the post will open at 9 a. m. at Legion Hall with the auxiliary meeting at the same time at the I.O.O.F. Hall. Miss Ohlson will be presiding officer at the auxiliary meeting.

Delegates who arrived here Saturday afternoon were taken on sightseeing trips by members of the local post. Two groups visited the Goodwin Tract near Mission, the Pottle Cactus Gardens and Reynosa, Mex.

SAVE TIME MONEY ENERGY In Harlingen—

Tastes differ, even within a family. There has been no change in human nature since the old nursery rhyme truthfully stated about porridge:

"Some like it hot; some like it cold."

It is the difference in the tastes of people that make life so interesting, and because every phase of life is made interesting by diversity and changes in tastes, the transaction of business is given its greatest impetus.

There are mighty few manufacturers, distributors or retailers who have made a success of business by simply taking every opportunity to make a profit. The real thrill of business life is in meeting the varieties and the variations in customer tastes.

The reason Harlingen is the retail shopping center of the Valley lies in the fact that business men of Harlingen always are "on their toes" to meet the requirements of Harlingen's customers.

It is because these business houses have followed this policy that more and more people come to Harlingen to shop. The volume of this patronage by wise shoppers of the Valley has brought to Harlingen large stores and small shops, experts and craftsmen in all lines of endeavor.

The very accumulation of all these facilities and services adds to the convenience of shopping in Harlingen.

That's why loyal citizens all over the Valley, who always go to their local merchants first, come to Harlingen if their local store does not have exactly what they want.

That's why Harlingen merchants can say confidently that it is not necessary to make long shopping trips out of the Valley. They know, as many shoppers do, that "Whatever you need, you will find in Harlingen."

Letters To The Editor

TO THE COTTON GROWERS OF SOUTH TEXAS

Having lived in Cameron county for 26 years, and being an old exclusively in farming, I feel that I can offer something that may be of value regarding the crisis brought about by the pink boll worm. In spite of all efforts to eradicate and bring under control, this most dangerous of cotton pests now has a good start in both Cameron and Hidalgo as well as in several other South Texas Counties. The methods used all help but do not stop the worm; money and time are spent but reports continue to show the danger increasing instead of diminishing.

Scientists and Government experts, men who have made a life study of the pink boll worm and its life cycle are agreed that the only successful method of control is to stop growing cotton for two years. These are hard words and whenever I mention them in a public gathering the hearers throw up their hands and exclaim, "We can't do that, we must have our cotton crop." What would we do without our 100,000 bales per year, etc. Meetings are called, committees are sent to Austin and Washington and ways and means are devised to stop the spread of the pest—but pink boll worm continues to multiply and spread.

Situation Explained

The real facts are that we are not losing our cotton crop anywhere. It is only a question of time before we will either be able to raise it on a profitable basis or be quarantined and an intelligent anticipation will not only minimize our own loss but probably save the situation for the rest of the country now and perhaps ourselves later on.

Older readers of these thoughts will perhaps remember of the situation in Egypt some twenty-five years ago. The pink boll worm was just then invading the English Government's promising cotton industry in Egypt and an offer of 200,000 pounds sterling or nearly a million dollars for a practical control method. That reward has never been claimed and England now looks elsewhere for her cotton.

You will ask, "Why should we stop when Mexico will continue to grow cotton?" I feel sure they will for cotton is a hardy plant and the climate is such that it will grow all there the year around. The answer to this question of why quite a big slice of South Texas should stop is to protect the industry from further inroads into the United States, of which we happen to be a part.

Many Grow Cotton

There is estimated to be about forty million people in the United States that derive the major part of their living from cotton. If we continue to TRY and I use that word advisedly for that is all that they can do in all of the infested cotton growing sections in the world today, we will be the means of bringing about the ruin of the cotton industry of the entire south. I cannot think of a greater calamity to befall the South. This is particularly so because so many sections in the world are becoming infested with the pink boll worm that it is entirely possible that we might regain our old time world monopoly.

It is asked, "What can we grow to replace cotton?" This section will grow the largest variety of crops of any section in the U. S. A. and very few, if any of us, came here originally expecting to raise cotton. We have the best educated and most resourceful farmers of the South especially in the Valley, and I feel our State and National Government will assist us in a financial way while we are changing from cotton to another money crop. If we can get this help, we may still be hurt but not ruined.

Now let's start looking for a substitute for cotton. I am sure we can find something to take its place. Some sections can raise rice. Others tobacco, lots of us can raise feed. Cattle and hogs, where practical are the most successful farming in the world.

Personally, I believe a large section of South Texas can, in a few years, learn to grow flax and have a much more dependable money crop than cotton.

At any rate, we will lose our cotton here within a very few years and it would be better to take our loss now and save the rest of the South its industry. So far as I know, it is the only section remaining in the world free from infestation and its remaining so may depend entirely on us. The only solution is to stop growing for at least two years along the Mexican border and then maintain a non-cotton zone until Mexico cleans up her side. Our eventual loss would be small, nothing in comparison to the gain of the Country as a whole.

Hardships Seen Under New Wage-Hour Rules

LAW CHANGE DUE TUESDAY FOR INDUSTRY

42 Hour Week And
30c Minimum Set

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The United States Chamber of Commerce said Saturday that the new wage-hour standards effective next week would increase "difficulties and hardships brought on by the law" and create particular problems for concerns which have attained a high rate of industrial production.

On Tuesday, the work week under the wage-hour act will be reduced from 44 to 42 hours and the minimum wage will be increased from 25 to 30 cents an hour. Although wage-hour officials have expressed the opinion that industry could make the change smoothly, the U. S. Chamber commented in its weekly business review:

"Plants now working eight hours a day and four hours on Saturday are faced with a two-hour a day and four hours on Saturday, a continuation of the 44-hour week with overtime pay, or either a flat five-day week or a staggered arrangement over a six-or-seven day week."

The law will complete its first year on the federal statute books Monday without a supreme court test of its validity, which wage-hour officials said they had hoped for in the early stages of the act's operation.

However, wage-hour executives said they expected a challenging lawsuit from the textile industry as soon as the controversial 32 1-2 cents an hour wage order goes into effect Tuesday for 173,000 textile workers.

Southern textile interests employing about 125,000 of the workers strongly opposed the order, largely because it made no allowances for a differential between northern and southern textile manufacturers.

The 32 1-2 cent minimum was approved by a textile industry committee. The law provides for appointment of such committees to recommend a higher minimum in particular industry than the general minimum.

OFFICIALS SAY PAY-HOUR LAW NEEDS STREAMLINING

WASHINGTON—(AP)—After nearly a year's experience with the complicated mechanism of the wage-hour law, some officials said Saturday that it needed streamlining as much as strict enforcement to make it more effective for workers in the low wage brackets.

They pointed particularly to those provisions of the act which authorize establishment of industry committees to lift the minimum wage floor as rapidly as possible toward the 40-cent-an-hour goal envisioned by Congress for all interstate industry when it approved the law in 1938.

The wage-hour statute, providing a general minimum wage advancing gradually from 25 to 40 cents an hour, will be a year old Tuesday. In only two cases, textiles and hosiery, has the industry committee system resulted thus far in establishing minimum wages higher than the general minimum.

PERU LEADER TO BE NAMED

Two are Running For President's Post

LIMA, Peru—(AP)—Peru will choose a new president Sunday in an election without outstanding issues. Both candidates, Manuel Prado and Jose Quesada, are considered conservatives.

Prado, engineer and business man, is backed by a conservative coalition and has the support of many businessmen. His opponents say he is the "official" candidate of Retiring President Oscar R. Benavides.

Quesada, a lawyer who represents the extreme right, is backed by a coalition called the Patriotic Front. His opponents have charged that he is a "revolutionary" candidate because among his backers is a faction of the revolutionary union which at one time had Fascist inclinations and used Italian-style Blackshirt uniforms until the government banned party uniforms several years ago.

Both candidates come from old Peruvian families.

The presidential term will be for six years, December 8 this year until July 28, 1945.

About 500,000 are expected to vote in Sunday's election, which also will choose members of the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate.

Retiring President Benavides, in a radio speech Friday night, asserted that he had been requested to remain in power, but had refused to do so, and would accept the results of Sunday's elections.

Left to right they are: President Kyosti Kallio of Finland, King Haakon of Norway, King Gustav V of Sweden and King Christian of Denmark. They met in Stockholm.

Madison And Cortez Hotels Are Bought

HARLINGEN—Purchase of the Madison Hotel here and the Cortez Hotel at Weslaco was announced here Saturday by Harry Jacobs, representative for the syndicate headed by Barney Goodman, Kansas City.

The cash transaction was said to involve considerably more than $100,000, and was handled by the Real Estate Management and Mortgage Company of San Antonio, liquidating agent for the two properties. The hotel here is three stories, and that at Weslaco four.

Jacobs said the sale was made to J. C. Moore, Kansas City, nominee for Goodman. Lynn Austin, formerly with the Stephen F. Austin Hotel, Austin, former manager of the El Jardin Hotel at Brownsville, and connected with other prominent Texas hotels, was named manager of the two properties. Austin arrived here to assume charge Saturday.

Jacobs came here Saturday with J. D. Williamson, president of the San Antonio company, and William Kirby, also connected with the company. The purchasing syndicate also owns the Donna Hotel, Donna, the Santa Rita Hotel, Tucson, Ariz., the Bellevue Hotel, Kansas City, and others.

Jacobs said the new management plans extensive remodeling and renovation, some kind of entertainment program. It was also understood the vacant property from the hotel east to First street had been acquired by the syndicate, and that a new entrance, with a drive-way, would be put in on the east side of the hotel. Air conditioning, and remodeling of the coffee shop, is also planned.

The other instances concerned the trigger guard of Captain Schauer's pistol which, badly dented, showed it had deflected two bullets which probably would have penetrated the heart.

Charges of assault with intent to murder and robbery by assault have been filed against Howard Tatum of Austin in a justice court. The man, shot in the foot, is in the county jail. He admitted robbing the Blanco National Bank of Blanco to police and newspapermen. The bank was held up for $1,167 Thursday.

The furious gun fight, which endangered the lives of children attending a nearby school, followed a six-mile 90-mile-an-hour chase with Captain Schauer in one car and Captain J. B. Albright and Sergeant R. B. Butler of the patrol and Constable Arthur Woody in another pursuing a stolen auto.

GERMAN SHIP WHEREABOUTS IS MYSTERY

Valley Circles Await Notice Of Docking

BROWNVILLE—Shipping circles here were still awaiting confirmation Saturday of rumors that the Nazi-owned Motorship Welheim had reached Germany in safety.

Here on its maiden voyage, the sleek German ship left the Port of Brownsville last August 25 with 20,000 bales of cotton for Liverpool and Manchester, England.

Unconfirmed reports are that the MV Welheim put in at a Mexico port after leaving here, and then headed across the Atlantic to an unnamed German port.

Believed Safe In Port

A shipping agent here, informed of the rumor, declared he didn't think it possible the Nazi vessel could elude the British North Sea blockade.

Advices persisted in Houston, however, that the vessel had reached Germany safely, although the date of arrival and name of the port could not be learned.

The luxurious vessel picked up cargo in Galveston, Houston, Corpus Christi and Brownsville for the United Kingdom on its maiden voyage to America.

Captain Fritz Ecks, master of the ship, had declared that "Common sense dictates that there will not be a war."

Captain Feared War

"I will be back in Brownsville within two months," he told reporters shortly before his ship sailed.

If he got to Germany, the trip exceeded his expectations, however. He said here that if war was declared while he was crossing the Atlantic, he ship would never be able to get to Germany.

Named after the town of Welheim in the Ruhr Valley coal fields, the ship was commissioned last July 16 and was the most modern vessel ever to cast lines on wharves here.

The Philen Shipping Company is agent here for the Trans-Ocean Transport Company, owners of the vessel.

BALANCE

in bank management

DEPOSITORS rightly expect their bank to be conservative, for the sake of safety. Borrowers naturally desire liberal policies which will enable them to secure funds readily.

Management must strike a balance between these two points of view. The degree of success it achieves will determine the bank's value to its community.

The management of this bank will continue to consider the best interests of all—depositors, borrowers and the community—in guiding our services into channels of maximum usefulness.

Railway Express Petitioned For Lower Rates

VALLEY MEN ARE URGING REDUCTIONS

Alarm Is Seen Coming From Increase

WESLACO — The Railway Express Agency is being petitioned by thousands of Valley growers and shippers to reduce rates on shipments of citrus fruits, claiming that the higher rates which went into effect last season will prevent the shipment of thousands of boxes of fruit.

Petitions are being circulated in various Valley communities asking for lower rates.

It is stated in the petition that the higher rates placed into effect in the spring of 1938 will cost the Valley half its express business during the 1939-40 season and that not only the growers and shippers, but the express company also will suffer a loss. A ten per cent rate was placed in effect.

The petitioners suggest some of the rates desired including 75 cents per hundred pounds to Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and other states; that area plus a 10 per cent discount for shipments of more than five packages.

A rate of $1.00 is asked to Alabama, Kansas, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Tennessee and other states and $1.25 to points in North and South Dakota, Wisconsin, South Carolina and other states in that category.

The higher rates are expected to have the greatest effect on the Christmas gift package business since express charges in many instances would amount to much more than the value of the fruit shipped. This will discourage buyers who will turn to other articles, it is claimed.

Resentment was expressed in the Valley when the new higher rates went into effect when it was claimed that the charges on inbound radio sets, of which there are reported to be few that are shipped by express, had been reduced while citrus, which represents a large volume of business, was penalized.

Bohner Retires

Veteran Scout Chief To Quit Work

SAN BENITO — Twenty years of Boy Scout work was ended this week by R. J. (Bud) Bohner, veteran Valley Scout executive, when he retired from active work on account of ill health due to a back injury.

"Bud" Bohner was a member of the first Scout troop ever organized in the Valley. During the World War, while stationed at Santo Domingo with the United States Marines, conducted Scout work among the boys of the Dominican Republic. On his return to the United States, he was active in affairs of local and Valley Scout organizations. He has served as director of various annual camps at Camp Perry, and this year was assistant director at the new Scout camp near San Benito.

For many years, Mr. Bohner has been Scoutmaster of Rotary Troop 26 here. Upon his resignation, George Chaffin and Raymond Cowart took over leadership of the troop, and will be in charge until the Rotary Club, sponsoring organization, appoints a new leader.

SAN BENITO — Ladies Night was observed by the local Lions Club with a dinner and special entertainment at Miller's Grill in Barreda Thursday night with R. M. Collins, president, in charge.

At the regular luncheon session held Friday noon at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel dining room, the group introduced three new members. They were "Casey" Jones, Kenneth W. Bland, and John White.

TOMMY MANVILLE SET FOR FIFTH ALTAR TRIP

NEW YORK — (P)—Tommy Manville, the asbestos heir who up to this time had preferred blondes and old brandy, entered a new phase of his tempestuous career Saturday by toasting in champagne his new love—raven-haired Elinor Troy, the beauty whose fists once ruffled the handsome phiz of Jack Doyle, the Irish thrush.

There were great doings in the Manville suite on the 37th floor of the Waldorf-Astoria whither the squire of bon repos had brought his new lovely after she arrived at Newark airport from California in a chartered plane that cost Tommy $3,000—not to mention the money he spent on orchids, champagne, automobiles, tips and long-distance telephone calls.

Tommy, having spent a sleepless night by a telephone waiting for his love to call—she will be his fifth wife, Tommy said Saturday, reversing himself overnight—had become somewhat philosophical. He was thinking of the pastoral life and heirs for the asbestos heir.

Friday he had denied they would be married.

It was time, he remarked Saturday, for the stork to visit him at his New Rochelle, N. Y., home.

Elinor, too, he suggested, would like the pastoral life.

"Oh sure," agreed the 23-year-old lovely, "Only I want to do my hiding out in the Stork Club."

This all began a couple of months ago when the lovers quarreled and Elinor went out to Hollywood to play minor roles in a couple of movies and live with her mother, Mrs. Elsie Edmonston, formerly of Washington, D. C., where Elinor was born.

For several nights Tommy had been burning up the long distance wires, trying to get Elinor. Friday night he called his fourth ex-wife, Mrs. Marcelle Edwards Manville Carlisle who was in Hollywood, and asked for Elinor's phone number. Then called Elinor's home. She was at a movie. Tommy called the movie and had her paged.

"Sweetheart," he said, "You gotta come back to old Pappy Manville. I'm chartering a plane. You'll have champagne and orchids for breakfast."

So Elinor, alone, except for the crew, in the 28-passenger ship, flew out of the west to her Lochinvar, but he had a tough time waiting at Newark for the plane which was overdue because Elinor had wanted to stop at Washington to put on some make-up.

PLAY GROUP TO AUDITION

Little Theatre Meet Due Sunday

McALLEN—Auditions for acting in Valley Little Theatre plays will be given at 7:30 p. m. Sunday at the work house over No. 15, Main Street in McAllen, Director Paul Moore announced Saturday.

"We are anxious for a good turnout," Moore said, "since many persons have complained they cannot get parts in our productions. The auditions will not be for any certain play but to test dramatic possibilities."

"We're going to do some grand things this winter," the director added. "One of the plays we may produce is 'The Women.' Many persons saw the motion picture version, but the stage play is filled with more laughs."

El Jardin Names Boy As Queen Of School Carnival

BROWNSVILLE—Nominated by students of his home room because he was the only boy in the class, Norval Taylor has been announced as winner of the queen's race for the annual Halloween carnival at El Jardin school.

Taylor was announced as winner after $3.70 worth of votes were counted. Each penny was worth one vote. Trinidad Valdez, president of the student council, stated.

Raymond Margenau, senior football player, was chosen by teammates to escort Queen Norval in the carnival ceremony. Other attendants will be Doty Kidder, ninth grade representative, Marjorie Merrill of the eighth grade, and Vadena Foulds of the seventh grade.

Evelyn Wilkerson, senior candidate, withdrew early in the race in favor of Taylor.

Mrs. Ida Hall, director general of the carnival, revealed that concessions and free auditorium entertainment would be featured at the carnival.

PHARR — Mrs. Stanley Melton and daughter, Miss Ella Beth, have returned home from Dallas, where Ella Beth entered as Queen Citriana . . . in the State Fair.

The meeting will be the first one of the organization since the recess called at the beginning of summer. The club will adopt a program for the ensuing club-year.

During the first few months of their organization last year, the Cavaliers organized a Latin-American Boy Scout Troop, and made up and distributed 20 Christmas packages to needy families here.

Present officers are: Thurmond Krueger, president; Volney Taylor, Jr., vice president; Clarence Stuermer, secretary; Tom Barber, treasurer, and John Hill, parliamentarian and chairman of the program committee.

Nuevo Leon Trip To Be Discussed

Former TVA Head Seeking Refugees' Land In Mexico

ARTHUR E. MORGAN

YELLOW SPRINGS, O. — (P)—Arthur E. Morgan, deposed chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority is off on a new venture at the age of 61.

Associates at his home here disclosed Saturday that the tall engineer had gone to Mexico to inspect possible sites for settlements to take in Jewish and other refugees from war-torn Europe. He is working with the Friends Service Committee, Quaker organization of Philadelphia, and the Mexican government.

The present work, which he expects to complete within a month or six weeks, consists of making preliminary surveys of available land in several Mexican states, especially with a view to the possibility of irrigating arid tracts now unproductive and virtually uninhabited. Some of the land has been devoted to cattle raising but Dr. Morgan is giving it the once-over to determine its possibilities for farming on a smaller and more individual scale.

While most of the refugees probably would come from Germany, it was said, many others are expected to be drawn from Spain and Spanish refugee colonies in France.

Dr. Morgan's intimates here had no information on when the physical set-up of the settlements would be started. Much depends on financing and arrangements to be made with the Mexican government.

Dr. Morgan, former president of Antioch College here, is contributing his time to the survey, with the Friends Service Committee handling the finances and administrative details. His tour has taken him to the states of Chihuahua, Sinaloa, and Yucatan, center of the ancient Mayan civilization.

Meanwhile his associates await a decision of the Sixth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati on his suit challenging the right of President Roosevelt to remove him from the chairmanship of the TVA. He is seeking reinstatement and back salary.

IT WAS A GOOD LEG, ALLEGED CORPSE SAYS

By DREW MIDDLETON

WITH THE BRITISH Expeditionary Forces in France (Passed By Field Censor) — (P)—One of the strangest ceremonies of this strange war took place Saturday in a peaceful graveyard for British troops when an officer on whose chest was the dull red ribbon of the Victoria Cross put flowers on his own grave.

He is a high officer in the British forces. In the last months of the World War he completed valuable reconnaissance work after fighting off German squads and suffering severe machine-gun wounds in one leg, which was amputated.

For this exploit he won the Victoria Cross.

He remained in the army and despite his handicap reached high rank. He landed in France a month ago and to his surprise learned that in the confusion after the last battles of the World War his leg had been buried in a grave with the notation that it was all that had been found of him.

So Saturday morning with sabuterns eyeing him suspiciously he marched into a forest of little white crosses after a journey of many miles and placed flowers below the marking of his name and regiment on the grave.

"Dashed good leg, that," he said.

BROOKS TELLS PARTY PLANS

Bowl Of Rice Affair To Be Staged

HARLINGEN — C. L. Brooks has been reappointed by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., to serve as chairman of Harlingen's second annual Bowl of Rice Party to be held on October 30 for the aid of China's fifty million war refugees, it was announced here Saturday.

Brooks said that Colonel Roosevelt had written him that "last year's parties were successful beyond our hopes, and it is clear that the American public has accepted the bowl of rice as symbol of America's concern for the suffering people of China."

"There were Bowl of Rice parties in more than 600 cities and in every section of the country last year; but because the need is so much greater now, the United Council for Civilian Relief in China, sponsoring the parties, hopes that it can announce before date for this year's parties that the new list will double that number."

Brooks said the party this year will be held at the C and C Cafe, operated by Tom Corso, who has secured a Chinese cook to fix the rice and serve chop suey throughout the day beginning at 5 a. m. Brooks announced also that he has made arrangements for a Bowl of Rice party in Brownsville, where the Houston Cafe, operated by Chinese, will serve.

PAA's Fair Exhibit Seen By 15,000 Daily

Which Were Designated Locations of PAA Planes in Transit

The Hall of Air Transportation was held in a section of the huge Pan American hangar at San Francisco. Visitors could see mechanics working on the giant Clipper ships.

Arrivals and departures of the Clipper ships proved to be the greatest attraction, however. The crowds seemed to marvel that 16 hours hence the departing clippers would be 2,410 miles away in Honolulu.

The 42-ton Boeing Clippers have accommodations for 74 passengers and a crew of 10. There is enough room in one of them to equal a five-room house with basement. The hull is larger than Christopher Columbus' famed Santa Maria.

Despite the attractions of the Golden Gate Exposition, Bevil said that he's glad to be back in Brownsville again.

"This is home," he declared.

Germans, British Trade Punches

Germans raided Britain's naval bases in Scotland, and Netherlands villagers reported seeing a British bomber flying toward Emden, Germany, which observers believed was raided, as intensity increased in European warfare. At Scapa Flow, the British ship, Iron Duke, was damaged. It was there the Royal Oak was sunk a few days previous. Underlined towns on Britain's east coast had air raid scares, but had not been bombed.

Japanese Tycoon Pauses In Valley

BROWNSVILLE — Two Japanese industrialists, one reputed to be among the wealthiest in Japan, paused at the Brownsville airport Friday afternoon while on a good-will trade mission.

Here were Tomonori Nakano, president of the great Nihon Soda Company, and Shigeo Tajika, manager of the chemical and machinery department of Okura and Company, Limited, Tokyo, who was traveling as Mr. Nakano's secretary.

For a month, both have been in the United States on what Mr. Tajika described as a good will mission to promote trade between the United States and Japan.

They changed planes at the Brownsville airport enroute from Mexico City to Washington and New York, and plan to return to Japan within the near future via Seattle.

The week's visit into Mexico was for the purpose of looking the trade situation over, but no business was transacted, Mr. Tajika said.

He emphatically declared, however, that the Mexican visit was not for the purpose of oil. His company, he cited, purchases a great deal of Texas oil.

The Nihon Soda Company, he said, deals in steel, and other metals, chemicals and different products. Okura is a trading company.

Conversations were carried on by Mr. Tajika while at the Brownsville airport. Mr. Nakano, he said, speaks a little German, but not English.

Mr. Tajika expressed the opinion that the European conflict would draw the United States and Japan closer together, and said he looks for increasing friendliness between the two nations.

Speaking fairly good English, he remarked that he had always been treated well in the United States, and had many American friends in Japan.

He said he had been in the United States from 1926-1931 and because of his knowledge of the country, and language, had been selected to accompany Mr. Nakano.

Mr. Nakano, short in stature, unassuming and seemingly always smiling, is head of one of Japan's greatest industrial firms. Unverified rumors were that he is worth $150,000,000.

He is 53 years old, but looks more like 35.

The end of the Chinese-Japanese conflict was forecast soon by Mr. Tajika when the Chinese have drained the capital loaned them by other nations. The loaning of money to China by interested powers prolonged the war, he pointed out.

The Japanese industrialists arrived here by Pan American Airways and left by Braniff Airways.

CURT FORMS COMMITTEES

Matamoros Group Backs Lara

MATAMOROS — A local committee, headed by Miguel Elizondo, has been organized to support the candidacy of General Cesar Lopez de Lara for governor of Tamaulipas.

The local committee has called a meeting for 8 p. m. Thursday.

Also on the ticket for state senator is General Jose Villanueva Garza, former Brownsville resident.

The CURT party, which is opposing the administration party, is making its first appearance in Tamaulipas.

One of the cardinal principles of Mexican politics is that an officer shall serve only one term in any office, and General Lopez de Lara was governor of Tamaulipas during the period 1920-1923. His supporters, however, maintain that one can hold the same office after an elapse of ten years.

General Lopez de Lara, who has homes both in Victoria and Mexico City, recently made a "trial balloon" tour of Tamaulipas before he announced for office. He visited both Matamoros and Reynosa, drawing large crowds.

HARLINGEN — Construction is expected to get under way here about November 1 on the new $23,000 Presbyterian Church building at Fourth and Jackson, according to A. E. McClendon, chairman of the building committee.

The brick veneer structure, first in Harlingen among Protestant churches to plan a belfry, will go up at the present site of the church on two 50-foot lots.

Hurricane Battered Liner Unloads Cargo Of Many Injured Passengers

SUB VICTIMS ARE ALSO ON U. S. VESSEL

More Than Score Are Severely Hurt

NEW YORK—(P)—Battered by a hurricane in a bizarre voyage marked also by the rescue of the crew of a torpedoed British freighter and a front-row view of a blazing French oil tanker, another U-boat victim, the American Liner President Harding made port Saturday.

Aboard were 598 passengers, more than a score of them stretcher cases because of fractured bones and bruises and lacerated bodies.

Most of them were so choked by the terrorizing 11-day trip they were unable to give a coherent account of what happened. But a roundup of the tales that were told pictured almost superhuman bravery against the lashing storm, and coolness on the part of passengers who feared the ship would never come up from a howling-never administered by a mountainous wave.

This wave, striking at 9:36 p. m. October 17, and described by Capt. James Roberts as the fiercest sea he had seen in 43 years of seafaring, was the principal cause of the injuries of passengers.

It was particularly damaging in the smoking room where many passengers had congregated after dinner.

A huge piano became a ripping body-tearing thing, similar to the cannon in Victor Hugo's toilers of the sea, as it slithered across the decks, striking down victim after victim. Other furniture flew about splintering like exploding bombs.

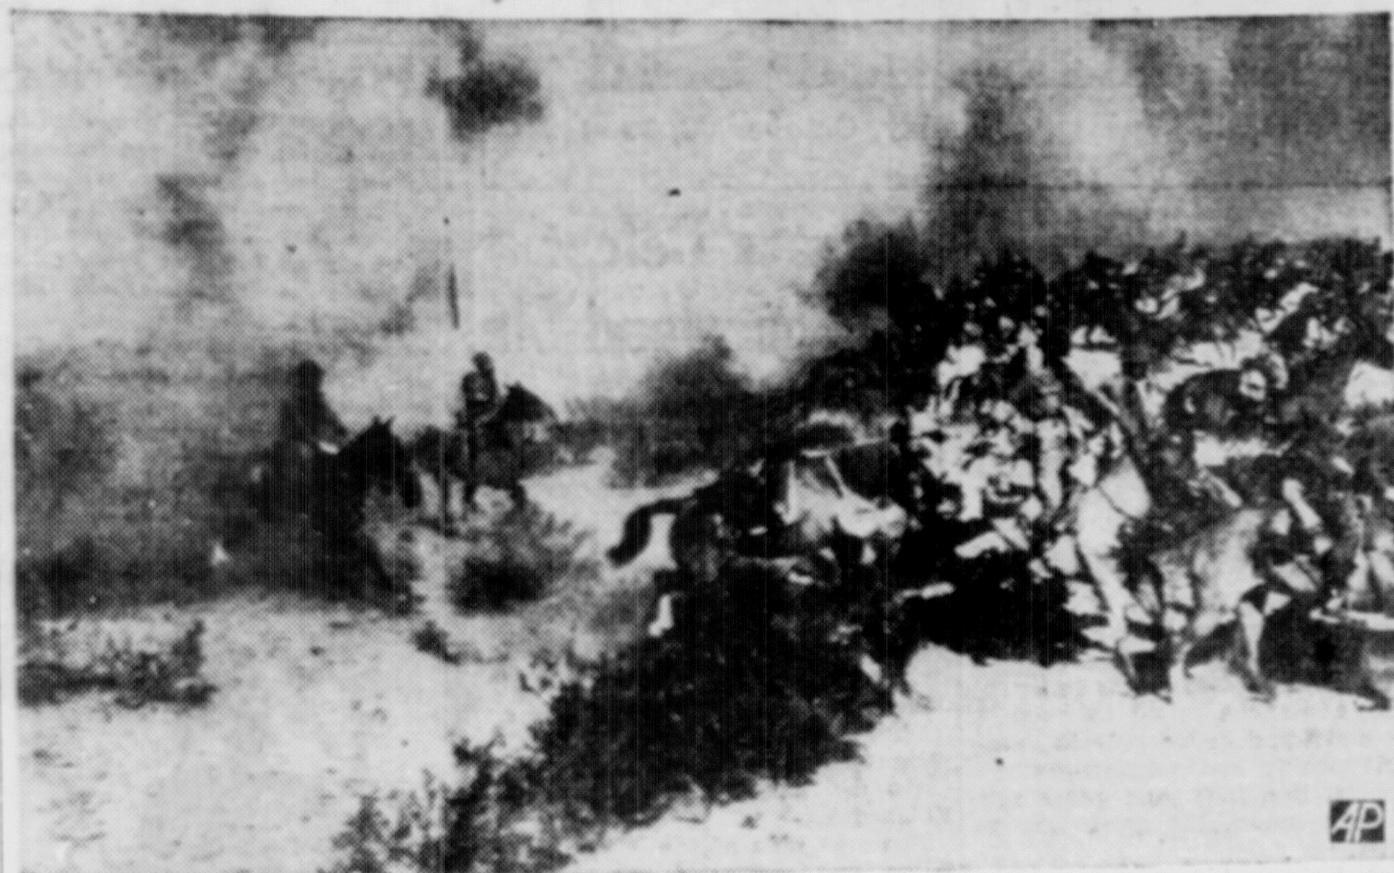

Despite the viciousness of the storm, the 13,869-ton veteran liner suffered only one casualty.

A cabin boy, Paul (Red) Johnson, of Stoughton, Wis., was swept overboard when he ventured on deck just before the gigantic wave struck the ship.

Captain Roberts said Johnson was not on deck duty and that he was the victim of "too much curiosity."

In all 73 passengers and crew members were injured, and Saturday 26 of these had to be removed from the ship in ambulances. Only two of the cases were considered critical by Ship's Surgeon Thomas Fisher of Allentown, Pa., who was assisted by a corps of passenger-physicians.

Machine gun units of the First Cavalry division use a smoke screen to get into battle formation in their maneuvers in Texas' Davis mountains near Balmorhea. Both troopers and their mounts are protected by gas masks.

Matamoros To End Carrying Of Guns

MATAMOROS—The days of unauthorized "pistol toting" in this vicinity are numbered, according to orders issued Saturday by General Baltazar C. Chapa Ayala, commander of the Matamoros garrison.

Public feeling against pistol-carrying was brought to a head by the mob scenes which occurred on the main plaza recently when suspects were brought in from Victoria in the slaying of two aged Matamoros women.

General Chapa Ayala has ordered that all possessing gun permits be turned in to him for rechecking and verification. Permits must be in his hands within the next eight days.

The only permits he will certify, he says, are those of federal officers (customs, immigration and federal agents), state agents and uniformed Matamoros policemen. Agrarians, who are members of the federal army reserve, have permits, but they will be required to leave their guns at customs outposts of Matamoros when entering the city unless they are on special detail requiring the use of arms, the general states.

No honorary gun permits, or confidential police permits will be honored unless vouched for personally by the mayor, the general asserted.

Mayor Francisco Zarate, in answer to the hue and cry against the large number of gun carriers, recently pointed out that he had authority over a relatively few of the permits.

DIZZY FILM COLONY IS STILL DIZZY

HOLLYWOOD—(P)—An elopement, a prospective marriage, three divorce actions, an arrest for illegal entry and a petition for bankruptcy of a leading night club threw film colony gossip into high gear Saturday.

The elopement was that of Pioneer Film Producer B. P. Schulberg, the man who discovered Clara Bow, Schlumberg, 46, and Actress Lynn Kiebler, 26, formerly of Chicago, flew to Las Vegas, Nev., Friday and were married.

Tommy Manville, irresponsible heir to an asbestos fortune, was the principal of the prospective marriage.

Elmer Troy, who came here three months ago to enter picture work, boarded a chartered plane for New York after, she said, "Tommy insisted by telephone that I drop everything and fly east."

Alfred J. Goulding, 53, who has directed more than 500 motion pictures since 1918, supervising the work of such players as Harold Lloyd and Bebe Daniels, was arrested by immigration officials on a charge of illegal entry.

A native of Melbourne, Australia, he returned here in January, 1938, on a three-months' visitor's permit, Immigration Inspector Frances J. Hickey said, from a three-year stay in England.

Actress Gale Page won a divorce from Frederick M. Tritschler, Chicago broker, custody of their eight-year-old son and $525 a month support.

Charging cruelty, Marjorie Daw, silent day screen actress, sued Myron Selznick, actors' agent, for divorce and for division of more than $1,000,000 in community property.

Creditors of the Trocadero Cafe, film celebrities' rendezvous which closed several days ago, asked in federal court that the night club be declared bankrupt. Petitioners included waiters and other employees and a towel company.

Other developments: A department store sued Actress Lita Grey Chaplin for $193 on a bill of goods.

Marianne Gylh obtained a $599

default judgment against Skater Sonja Henie, charging the actress employed her as masseuse on a national tour and then discharged her at Houston, Texas.

Texas Longhorns Take Thriller From Porkers 14-13

by E.C. Doc Osborn.

'Nocona Nugget' Scores Marker In Last Minute

Razorbacks Score 21 First Downs

By RAY NEUMANN

AUSTIN, Tex. —(P)—Twinkle-toed Jack Crain, University of Texas sophomore, amazingly ripped off a 59th minute 61 yard gallop and booted the extra point here Saturday to give the embattled Longhorns a 14-13 triumph over a burly Arkansas aggregation in the Steers' first Southwest Conference clash.

Texas apparently had lost the game when the tow-headed, 165-pound youngster, who had set the stage for the Longhorns' first marker with an 86 yard scamper, fought his way through the bulky Razorback line, twisted and squirmed through several tacklers, was all but stopped several times but finally broke loose and outran the secondary to score.

Sixteen thousand spectators went wild and the field after the "Nocona Nugget" calmly kicked the winning point from placement. After the field was cleared, time was left only for Texas' kickoff and one Arkansas play, which was smeared.

Steers Show Fight Besides Crain, Texas had little to brag on with the exception of an unquenchable fighting spirit. Throughout, the husky lads from the Ozarks held the lighter Steers in check. The Arkansas earned their touchdowns the hard way, Kay Eakin, Gloyd Lyon and several wingmen repeatedly slashing their way through a sturdy Texas defense.

Statistics revealed the Razorbacks made 21 first downs to the Longhorns' four, gained 283 yards on the ground to the Steers' 64, and 62 over the air to the Longhorns' 76. Crain's first spectacular run figured in Texas' kick returns, giving the Longhorns 151 yards to the Porkers' 61.

The red clad Arkansas lost little time after the game opened to run over their first scores. They received the kickoff and a few plays later a pass, Kay Eakin, the Razorbacks' brilliant triple threat, to wingman Maurice Britt, carried the ball 26 yards to Texas' 43.

A deceptive lateral, Eakin to Lyon, got nearly 10 yards and a plunge by Co-Captain Ray Cole added another three. Eakin then cracked the Steer line and was hauled down on the Longhorn 8.

Eakin Scores Lyon lateraled to Eakin who started to the right, reversed his field, sidestepped several would-be tacklers and ran over the goal line standing up. Walter Hamberg's try for point by placement kick was wild.

The Razorbacks' final touchdown drive started late in the third period after fullback R. B. Patrick of Texas had booted out of bounds on the Arkansas 35.

Ralph Atwood, whose scat running figured in the Porkers' prodigious ground gaining, picked up seven around end. Eakin and Estes McDaniell, a back, worked the ball to Texas' 41. An unnecessary roughness penalty against Texas early in the final period gave the Razorbacks the ball on the Steer 22. An end around play with O'Neill Adams carrying, lost a yard. Then Walter Hamberg crashed through for four.

Eakin faked a pass and bucked through to the Texas 10 and an aerial failed. Atwood broke wide around end and was forced out on the Texas one. The next play, Eakin plunged, fought and finally scrambled his way over the line.

Milton Simington, whose play at guard scintillated, placekicked the point.

DUG OUT! the SPORTS BAG!

Along with every other football fan in the Valley, we were anxious to learn just who did win the Harlingen-Edinburg game Friday night—if either team did win it.

So far as the game was concerned, the score was 14-14. Then to add to the problem, the 20-yard penalties were tied 3-3, the first downs 13-13, and the yards gained from scrimmage 242-242.

We learned yesterday that the District 16-AA committee had made provisions for just such a happening as occurred at Edinburg Friday night.

Here is the ruling—no game. It seems that the committee decided that if the score was tied, the 20-yard penalties and first downs would settle the issue. If they were tied, then the game was to be called "no game" and the yardage gained would not count in determining a winner for it was decided that to keep official yardage, an official statistician would have to be hired for each game.

We believe that the committee was wise in its decision despite the fact that a perplexing situation could occur when the final standings of the teams in the lower bracket of this district are announced. Just suppose that Harlingen and Edinburg go through the conference season undefeated. Which team would play the winner of the upper bracket for the district championship?

Perhaps it would be wise to just forget all about the whole business until the Valley teams have played out their schedule. Then there will be plenty of time to worry about the game for the district title.

Two Moments There were two moments in the Harlingen-Edinburg game that were just about as tense as could be found in any football scrap.

One came when Tony Poulos was back to try for the extra point that would give the Bobcats a loss or a tie. Tony came through.

The other came late in the game. Harlingen was trailing in first downs, 12 to 13. A pass shot from Billy Kinney to Billy Livingston and the little Harlingen back pulled it down and stumbled along for a sizable gain, keeping himself off the turf with a hand. The gain was sufficient for a first down—the 13th first down for the Cardinals. Anything less than a first down would have lost the game for the Red Birds.

Such moments as these are responsible for the hold that football has on the American public.

Two Pairs Two pairs have been dealt by the schedule makers for the Southwest Conference next Saturday. A pair of intersectional contests and a pair of conference tilts are what the grid fans have drawn.

All the Southwest will be pulling hard for the Arkansas Razorbacks as they journey up to Philadelphia to meet the Villanova Wildcats.

The Texas Aggies upped Southwest prestige tremendously in the East when they trounced Villanova 33 to 7. If the Razorbacks—this game in the enemy's territory—can repeat the medicine, they will just about make a convert out of the City of Brotherly Love.

Baylor vs. Texas A. and M. at College Station should be a battle royal. It will be the Aggies' first conference game at home and Baylor's first conference game away from home. Last year the fifth-place Aggies tied the third-place Bears 6 and 6 in Waco.

Not since 1938 have the Texas Longhorns been on the long end of a score with the Rice Owls. This year the Steers are on the upgrade and the game in Austin Saturday will present many interesting moments.

TCU, and Centenary, both considerably below par this season, will stage the battle of the luckless in Shreveport. You could pick both teams to lose and not go far wrong.

The Mustangs of Southern Methodist will take the week off in order to nurse themselves for a chilling plunge into a series of six conference tilts in a row.

Beginning November 4, the Methodists, on successive weekends, take on Texas, Texas A. and M., Arkansas, Baylor, TCU, and Rice.

Even Hitler hasn't taken on anything as formidable as that list!

Missouri Wins Over Wildcats

COLUMBIA, Mo.—(P)—Missouri relied upon the trusty kicking toe of Bill Cunningham and cunning right arm of Paul Christian to defeat Kansas State 9 to 7 Saturday, after its running game was stymied by the Wildcats' granite line.

Cunningham placekicked a field goal from Kansas State's 14-yard line in the second quarter and Christian collaborated with the Orf twins for a touchdown pass in the third period that enabled the Tigers to drop the Wildcats.

With only three minutes of play remaining, Kansas State climaxed a counter attack through the air from left-handed Elmer Nieman to quarterback Gene Fair. Jim Brock placekicked the extra point.

Aggie Powerhouse Routs Texas Christian 20 To 6

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

FORT WORTH.—(P)—Power seeping from its every thrust, unbeaten Texas A. and M., rumbled on Saturday with a jinx-breaking, 20-6, rout of the battered shell of once mighty Texas Christian.

Ganged around Jarlin' John Kimbrough, a hulking son of the West Texas cow country, the Aggies overpowered and outclassed the ghost of last year's great Christian team—further weighted down Saturday with injuries to its key men.

Huskers Employ Air Lanes To Wallop Bears

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

LINCOLN, Neb.—(P)—Nebraska rolled out a barrel of might in the person of pudgy Hermie Rohrig Saturday and blasted the formerly unblemished Baylor Bears of Texas into the ranks of the defeated, 20 to 0 in an intersectional contest Saturday.

The Huskers, who had passed but twice in their two previous victories, filled the air so full of footballs for a few minutes in the third quarter the 27,000 spectators could scarcely see across the field, with Rohrig doing all the tossing.

He tossed both passes which Raymond Prochaska caught in the end zone for touchdowns in the third quarter and added the extra points on both. He was denied a third tally when he took a lateral from Roy Petch in the second period and hurled to Robert Ludwig, who stumbled as he reached for the ball.

Rohrig let go the first time from the 25 yard line to Prochaska who was alone in the end zone. His second touchdown aerial gained only four yards but was more spectacular, the receiver taking the ball on his knees surrounded by Bears. Both were made in the first eight minutes after the rest period.

Rohrig didn't start because of an injury suffered a week ago. That switch gave Harry (Hippity) Hopp a chance to star in the manufacture of the first touchdown.

After being held without a gain in their first three plays, Nebraska marched 45 yards to the pay-off station in the next five.

A lateral-forward gained 16 yards and Vike Francis blasted his way for 10 more but Hopp bounced the final yards with virtually every one of the Baylorites touching him in the short spring.

Baylor, with Jack Wilson spending most of the day on the bench, presented a potent line which twice broke through a block Nebraska punts. Wilson handled the ball only four times and was thrown for losses totalling 18 yards.

Center Bob Nelson did a terrific job of backing up the Baylor line until he suffered an arm injury in the third period.

James Witt and Malcolm Linder took up the offensive burden for the Bears when Wilson was kept on the bench in a protective move. The Kemp junior gained almost three yards every time he crashed into the Nebraska forward wall.

Mustangs Bury Marquette With Mixed Offense

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS.—(P)—Southern Methodist University buried the Golden Avalanche of Marquette University 16-6 here Saturday, in a game of glittering runs and long passes—all on the side of the victors.

Marquette's offense was impotent—the Avalanche failed to make a first down and netted only 23 yards from rushing and passing—with a stubborn line that gave grudgingly the only reason the score was no higher.

Bob Belville led the scoring parade with a touchdown and field goal with Wally Bearden ringing up the other Methodist counter. Sanders kicked one point after touchdown.

The game, played in stifling heat—it was around 90 degrees and the sun was blazing—was a feature of the State Fair drawing 8,500 fans. It wound up the intersectional schedule for the Mustangs who next week drive into the conference campaign with six tough opponents ahead.

The Methodists rolled up 15 first downs and netted 359 yards running and passing while doing it. The Mustangs played without the services of Preston Johnston, their sensational sophomore. Johnston went out of the game early in the first quarter with a bruised hip but he wasn't missed, with Belville, Johnny Clement, Gerald Geise and Dandy Dick Miller running the Marquette ends and tackles dizzy.

Belville's touchdown was the most sensational of the game, the Mustang fullback storming 53 yards for the score. His gallop was a neat cutback over tackle with the runner eluding a half dozen would-be tacklers in his goalward dash.

The score came about midway of the second period, following an exchange of punts in which the Mustangs gained the ball on their 35. Clement, a consistent gainer all day, raced around left end for 12. Belville's cutback to the right caught Marquette flat-footed and the defense did not begin to form until Big Bob was in the middle of the secondary.

Cougars Defeat Sharyland Six

MISSION.—El Jardin Cougars routed a six-man football team from Sharyland high school 45-20 in a league game sponsored by business men of the upper Valley at Mission Friday night.

The game will be an inter-district affair. The kickoff is scheduled for 8 p. m.

In the United States there are fewer than 50 persons per square mile as against about 700 in Great Britain.

Sharyland players were unable to match the speed of the Cougars, although the Rattlers scored three touchdowns after El Jardin second string players were sent in to the game.

While all Cougars carried out their assignments well, halfback Jean Crow did most of the scoring for El Jardin.

Business men of the Mission-McAllen area supported the game to such an extent that both El Jardin and Sharyland athletic funds realized net profits from the contest. Superintendent A. D. Smith of Sharyland revealed.

Tulsa went ahead in the third period on Marshall Dennis' kick from placement for 3 points from the 15. In the fourth Richard Morgan of the Hurricane intercepted a pass on Centenary's 41 and raced over for 6 more points.

Ole Miss Rebels Trample Billikens 42-0

UNIVERSITY, Miss.—(P)—The Ole Miss Rebels had everything Saturday in running around and over a previously unscored on St. Louis University eleven, 42 to 0.

The Mississippians capitalized on Billiken misplays for the first two scores and then added four more tallies on power, using almost three complete teams.

St. Louis never had a chance after the sixth play. On the latter occasion, Wally Rafalko fumbled a towering Ern Smith punt into his own end zone and little Junie Hovus plumped on the ball for a touchdown.

Smith made good on the extra point and the parade was on, Johnny Whittington and Jesse Ward going over for scores in the second period. Roy (Bubber) North and Chet Koziel in the third, and Les Dodson in the fourth on the prettiest bit of running of the day.

Texas Aggies Gain Right To Top Football Ranking

Favorites Fall In Day Of Wild Gridiron Tilts

Defeat Of Pitt Has Fans Talking

By HERB BARKER
NEW YORK.—(AP)—Bob Neyland's Tennessee Volunteers proved their right to top football ranking with Notre Dame, Texas A. and M., Michigan, Ohio State and the rest of the unbeaten brigade Saturday as Pitt and Carnegie Tech fell off the bandwagon in major upsets.

Previously untested by major competition, Tennessee punched out a decisive 21-0 victory over Alabama's Crimson Tide and demonstrated conclusively that pre-season hype on the Vols was founded strictly on fact. A 56-yard touchdown run by sophomore Johnny Butler in the second quarter started the Vols on their way. Two more touchdowns in the final quarter settled the issue.

Meanwhile, Pitt, No. 1 ranking team in last week's Associated Press ranking poll, was blasted into defeat by a game rally by Duquesne which spotted the Panthers two touchdowns and came on to win 21-13. Carnegie Tech, generally recognized as Eastern champion a year ago, fell before New York University, 6-0.

Notre Dame, after winning three close ones, stopped Navy handily before a crowd of 41,000 in Cleveland, winning 14-7 on touchdowns by Ben Sheridan and Milt Piepul. Michigan gave another awesome demonstration of scoring power in an 83-0 rout of hapless Chicago. Ohio State knocked off Minnesota, 29-20, and became the first Big Ten team into whip the Gophers at Minneapolis since 1932. Charles Mag's field goal furnished the margin of victory. Texas A. and M. powerhouse of the Southwest, spotted Texas Christian a touchdown but came on to win easily, 20-6.

In New Orleans, two unbeaten Southern outfits, Tulane and North Carolina, fought to a 14-14 draw as Jim Lalanne's passes for the Aggies overcame a two-touchdown deficit. Kentucky hopped up Georgia, 13-6, and Georgia Tech halted Vanderbilt, 14-6, in Southeastern Conference games.

Duke rolled up a 29-8 count on Syracuse, Washington, and Lee checked West Virginia, 9-0, and Richmond trounced Gettysburg, 21-6, in intercollegiate games but Auburn, of the Southeastern group, dropped a surprising 7-0 decision to Manhattan. North Carolina State was beaten by Detroit, 21-6, and Maryland bowed to Rutgers, 25-12. Rounding out the intercollegiate program, Nebraska ran up a decisive 20-0 count on Baylor and Southern Methodist held Marquette without a first down in punching out a 16-0 triumph.

Cornell continued to impress in the East, rolling up a 47-0 count on Penn State as favorites otherwise performed about as expected. Army gave another disappointing exhibition, bowing to Yale 20-15 as the Cadets' running attack bogged down pitifully. Harlan Gustafson caught Harvard, 22-7, and Dave Allardice's passing skill carried Princeton to a 14-7 verdict over Columbia.

Holy Cross stopped Brown easily, 20-8, and Dartmouth topped Lafayette 14-0. Boston College's 10-0 rout of Temple carried some eyebrow raising.

Indiana scored its second Big Ten victory, nosing out Illinois 7-6, and Northwestern finally woke up long enough to halt Wisconsin, 13-7, with Bill De Correvont playing well. Mike Byelene led Purdue to a 20-7 conquest of Michigan State.

Oklahoma opened defense of the Big Six crown and crushed Kansas, 27-7, as Missouri barely got past Kansas State, 9-7, on Bill Cunningham's field goal. Iowa State surrendered to Drake of the Missouri Valley Conference, 7-0.

Jack Crain's 61-yard run for touchdown in the final minute carried Texas to a 14-13 decision over Arkansas.

In the Pacific Coast Conference, Oregon State remained unbeaten, stopping Washington, 13-7. California finally won one, a 13-7 verdict over Washington State. UCLA won from non-conference Montana, 20-6, but previously unbeaten Oregon took a 12-7 beating from Gonzaga.

Utah, strong team of the Rocky Mountain Big Seven, routed non-conference Idaho, 35-0. Denver whipped Utah State, 7-0, and Colorado upset Colorado State, 13-0, in conference games.

Wildcats Down Wisconsin 13-7

EVANSTON, Ill.—(AP)—A northwestern team that failed to score a single point in two games this season suddenly came to life Saturday to conquer Wisconsin 13-7 before 40,000.

After Wisconsin scored a touchdown in the first four minutes of the game, the Wildcats came from behind and waged a magnificent battle. Young Bill De Correvont, the touted haired backfield star, provided a thrill when he broke away for a 54-yard gallop, darting and running through the entire Badger team only to turn around after he crossed the goal line to learn that his thrilling run had been nullified by a penalty on Northwestern for clipping. Jack Ryan, going to De Correvont's aid, knocked the Wisconsin defense man down from behind.

Western State college girls started their Powder Bowl football game on a mountain side gridiron, an upclass team beating a lower class eleven, 13 to 6. Here teammates open a wide hole through the line for Capt. Alice Shanks of the winners in the Gunnison, Colo., game.

Rodeo Set Today At Samano Ranch

LOS FRESNOS.—If the past rodeos on the Samano ranch are a criterion, some of the best bronco-busters in South Texas will be grabbing leather and flying through the air when they tangle with the wild Samano stock near here Sunday afternoon.

Wranglers have been gathering here from as far off as Hebbronville, but they have struck a real snag in the wild bandits and unconverted bulls that range the "Mata Sandia" ranch, managed by Rodolfo Samano, former Brownsville Junior College grid star.

The finest group of ropers and riders yet to enter the contests is expected to be on hand at 2:30 p. m. Sunday when the rodeo gets under way. Several of the best bronco-busters from the King ranch have indicated that they intend to be on hand to test the mettle of the Samano stock.

Food and refreshments will be available for spectators.

The ranch is located ten miles east of San Benito on the Lantana highway, only three miles off concrete. It is eight miles directly north of Los Fresnos.

Brownsville Juniors Meet Raymondville

BROWNVILLE.—The Brownsville Junior High School Red Ants will meet the Raymondville Juniors on Tucker Field Thursday in their third game of the season.

With one win and one loss to their credit, the Ants will be out for a conference victory over the Willacy junior grid eleven in the clash here. Brownsville's Juniors won over McAllen 18 to 0, but lost to the Mercedes Cubs 6 to 0.

Little Duquesne Surprises With Win Over Pitt

By FRANKLIN BARKER
PITTSBURGH.—(AP)—Gridiron history was repeated here Saturday when Little Duquesne University's giant killers trounced the University of Pittsburgh's Golden Panthers 21-13 to topple the Panthers from the top position of the nation's football might.

The plucky Duquesne Dukes from the bluffs high above the downtown "Golden Triangle" spoiled the Panthers' undefeated record in a game reminiscent of their 1936 struggle.

Playing in pelted rain and gum-mud, Duquesne that year defeated Pitt 7-0. It rained Saturday, too, but only in showers, and the sun shone at the end of the first quarter as the Panther regulars trotted to the bench with what appeared a safe 13-0 lead.

Coach Charley Bowser then sent in his reserves and in the final seconds of the first half the heads up Dukes scored a touchdown by cashing in on a poor Panther kick.

The first line Panthers returned in the second half but the third quarter was a standoff and then in the final period it happened. Dandy Dick Cassiano fumbled on his own 18-yard line and the ball shot up in the air, nestled in the arms of Duquesne end John Yacina, who streaked over the goal line with what proved to be the tying point.

Rokisky kicked the extra point from placement and that was enough to beat the Bowser Boys. The Dukes scored again near the close of the game on a long pass, Ahwesh to Rokisky.

On the basis of statistics, the game was fairly even, both teams recording eight first down. Pitt had the edge in ground gaining, moving 184 yards from scrimmage to Duquesne's 118, while Pitt's eight completed passes were good for 70 yards and Duquesne's four completions netted 55.

Tigers Scratch Columbia Lions

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Dave Allardice whipped his Princeton Tigers into a fury with a sling shot passing exhibition Saturday and stormed over the Columbia Lions 14 to 7 before a crowd of 30,000.

The 20-year-old junior from Noblesville, Ind., shot a pass good for 53 yards to Howie Stanley for one touchdown in the first period and scored the other himself in the second period on a four-yard off tackle stab after passing the ball into position.

Altogether the gallant back threw four passes good for 117 yards for a greater gain than the net running and passing attack of the entire Columbia team.

Midget Auto Races Carded At Mission Track Sunday

MISSION.—Declared to be the most outstanding development in Upper Valley sports, the midget racing program opens in Mission Sunday afternoon in a thrilling show for Valley sport fans.

A new track which has been prepared at American Legion Speedway for the races is one of the best in South Texas, racing experts say.

Eight big racing events are on the Sunday afternoon program, with at least eleven cars participating. Time will be called for the first trial event to start at 2:30 p. m.

Since midget racing is a new sport, comparatively, and Sunday's races will be the first of the kind to be seen by many of the fans, some of the features in which the sport differs from regular car racing were pointed out by P. F. McNamee, starter and track supervisor for Sunday's program. Smaller in size and lighter in weight than regular passenger cars, the midget cars are powered with as much or more horsepower. Speeds reached by the midgets range around 80 miles per hour, the tremendous speed on a short track providing the thrilling element which the sport boasts.

The American Legion Speedway track is said to be the best in South Texas because it was designed from the first expressly for the midget racing program, rather than a track being built for another purpose having been converted. Expert and technical knowledge was used in designing the track and in its construction. As a result the surface is one that is ideal for the racing program. Members of the Fred H. Morgan American Legion Post, sponsors of the new entertainment program, have directed the construction and have enlarged the grandstand in preparation for the event. The track has been built within the Legion ball park, with the baseball diamond left intact.

Mission has been placed on a circuit with several other Texas cities and will have the racing programs carded alternately with those cities, including Harlingen, Corpus Christi, San Antonio and Beaumont. Tentative dates for succeeding races include November 11, December 24, January 13 and 14. The latter two dates coincide with the Texas Citrus Fiesta in Mission and the midget races promise to be outstanding features of the Fiesta entertainment program.

J. F. Honey, commander of the Legion post, announced that tickets for Sunday's event had been priced at forty cents. They may be reserved at the Manhattan Cafe or the White Way Cafe, with the price the same whether the ticket is bought at one of those places or at the park Sunday.

Committees from the Legion post who have assisted in completing arrangements for the new racing program, serving on the legal, bond selling, or construction committees include: Commander Honey, Joe N. Summers, J. F. Ewers, D. W. Cott, S. P. Rosette, L. A. Smith, W. R. Blalock, W. H. Braden, C. B. Williams, and T. E. Yewell.

On the next kickoff some fast headwork by Tippen gave Sam Houston the ball. The Teachers kicked a low one that skittered near the sidelines, and Tippen pounced on the free ball. Barfield and Barnett worked from the 30 to the 16, where Barfield pulled his passing act with Tippen again. It worked to the 5-yard line.

With the ball on the 12 yard line, and 15 yards in from the side boundary, Barnett sent a beautiful field goal kick sailing from that difficult angle through the cross-bars.

The trick sent the Teachers ahead, 9-6, with four minutes to play. They deserted their offensive and sat back to protect the lead. After a Rice punt, the ball went into play on the Sam Houston 14. There was only about a minute left to play, and rather than give Rice the ball again, Barfield, from punt formation, simply trotted back behind his goal line and touched the ball to the ground, giving Rice a safety and two points.

9-8. That was the way it ended, and the Huntsville team and rooters went wild. Fifteen thousand fans were in the stands, but none was sitting through much of the wild contest.

Only last week Sam Houston lost a game, 7-0, to another little school, the Texas College of Arts and Industries at Kingsville.

Rice had a slight statistical edge—13 first down to 11, and other similar items—but Sam Houston had the bigger score. And that's all Sam Houston cared about.

Teachers Thump Rice Owls 9-8

By WILLIAM T. RIVES
HOUSTON, Tex.—(AP)—A band of unsung youngsters from South Texas Teachers College, set to take a beating in a sparring match with the Rice Owls, chopped down the Southwest Conference behemoth 9 to 8 Saturday night in a thrilling football upset.

A stunning fourth period offensive bowled over the Owls for the Teachers' story book victory over a team the experts had figured before the season as the potential conference flag waver.

That was the unvarnished version of the game, but it doesn't begin to tell the brilliant battle the Teachers put up to do the impossible.

Twice in the first period they beat back the heavier Owls when the enemy was breathing hard down about the 10 yard line. All through the first half Sam Houston's warriors were on the defensive—they never got past the Rice 45-yard line.

They were working desperately to keep down the score. About midway of the second period Don Summan, sophomore halfback, had blazed 40 yards off left end to put the Owls ahead, 6-0.

But the Teachers kept plugging, and after the rest period they came out with new life and kicked the Rice Birds with a spectacular 78 yard drive that just failed of a touchdown. Starting from the 5, they passed and ran to the 17 before the Owls could collect their wits and defense.

The fourth period was a gem, with three scoring plays and a wild sequence of events compressed into it.

Starting from their 34, the Teachers, with Bob Barfield and Cullen Barnett passing and running, went to the eight yard line, where Barfield pitched to Clarke Tippen, rangy end, for a touchdown. That tied up the score, and the Teachers went back to their chore.

On the next kickoff some fast headwork by Tippen gave Sam Houston the ball. The Teachers kicked a low one that skittered near the sidelines, and Tippen pounced on the free ball. Barfield and Barnett worked from the 30 to the 16, where Barfield pulled his passing act with Tippen again. It worked to the 5-yard line.

With the ball on the 12 yard line, and 15 yards in from the side boundary, Barnett sent a beautiful field goal kick sailing from that difficult angle through the cross-bars.

The trick sent the Teachers ahead, 9-6, with four minutes to play. They deserted their offensive and sat back to protect the lead. After a Rice punt, the ball went into play on the Sam Houston 14. St. Mary's Rattlers Win Over Lobos 47-0

SAN ANTONIO.—(AP)—Paced by fleet Curtis Sandig, who reeled off the first three touchdowns on runs of 23, 82 and 55 yards, the St. Mary's University Rattlers humiliated the Sul Ross Lobos, 47 to 0, in an Alamo Conference football game here Saturday.

Coach Moss Simms held the Rattlers in check the first half after Sandig reeled off two quick touchdowns on successive plays, but he turned them loose after the intermission. Sandig and John Medley scored in the third period and in the fourth Rene Mouton plowed 10 yards for one touchdown, Burren Brown intercepted a pass for another and Anson Daigle flipped a pass to Burren Brown for the final. Medley and Mouton each kicked two extra points and Charles Summers booted the other.

Notre Dame Tramples Stubbhorn Navy Team 14 To 7

Fast Backs Give Irish Gridders 2 Touchdowns

Midshipmen Employ Air Attack

By FRITZ HOWELL
CLEVELAND—(AP)—Notre Dame's lightning-fast backs, aided by a horde of fine-blocking linemen, tipped their way to two touchdowns Saturday to beat a stubborn, air-minded Navy team 14 to 7 before 81,104 screaming fans who jammed Cleveland Stadium.

The South Bend Irish struck pay dirt on the first play of the second period. Ben Sheridan of Havana, Ill., third string back, ripped off a 27-yard run around right end the first time he had his hands on the ball.

The second Notre Dame score came in the third period on a 64-yard march climaxed by substitute fullback Milt Piepul's one-inch plunge over center.

The Midshipmen, checked out on the ground, took to the air with a desperate passing attack on the final period and clicked for a 64-yard touchdown on an aerial from red-haired Bob Leonard, substitute halfback, to Elmont Whitehead, another sub halfback.

Whitehead took the 34-yard drive on the Irish 30, outmarched two Notre Dame backs to the goal line, and then kicked the extra point.

The Navy thrilled the giant crowd with its last period flurry by completing seven of 11 passes, but following the Middle touchdown the Irish dug in, took the ball and marched 64 yards to the Navy 10-yard line where the final gun halted them.

Notre Dame registered 22 first downs to Navy's 6, piling up 419 yards from scrimmage to 135 for the Midshipmen. All of the Notre Dame yardage came through rushing. The Irish failed to complete a pass in seven tries, while the Navy gained only 23 yards by rushing and 122 through the air lines.

BEAVERS 13; HUSKIES 7
SEATTLE—(AP)—Oregon State College remained undefeated in Pacific Coast Conference play Saturday, noosing out the University of Washington, 13-7, despite a desperate last half passing attack by the Huskies. A crowd of 20,000 saw the game.

The Beavers scored after a blocked punt in the second quarter, with halfback Bob Olson gaining the final two yards. OSC tallied the second play of the fourth quarter with Morris Kohler going 44 yards off tackle. Washington scored a minute and six seconds from the end, Jay McDowell falling over the goal line with a pass from sub halfback Roy Carlson.

MICHIGAN 35; CHICAGO 0
CHICAGO—(AP)—Michigan's powerful Wolverines, with first, second and third string backs scoring in every period, rolled over the hapless Chicago Maroons 35 to 0 at Stagg Field Saturday before a crowd of less than 5,000 spectators.

PENN 22; HARVARD 7

BERKELEY, Calif.—(AP)—University of California scored its first football victory in four starts Saturday with a 13 to 7 win over Washington State College in a Pacific Coast Conference game.

UCLAN 20; MONTANA 6
LOS ANGELES—(AP)—The University of California at Los Angeles rolled over a hapless Montana eleven Saturday, winning 20 to 6, with Kenny Washington, star negro halfback, scoring all three UCLAN touchdowns.

CHICAGO—(AP)—The only living man to manage a world's championship team for Chicago is Clarence "Papa" Rowland of the Cubs' scouting staff. He led the White Sox to a world title in 1917.

'TALENTED TOES' OR 'HOW NOTRE DAME WINS'

Largely responsible for the narrow margins by which Notre Dame has won its first three games this season is the accurate place kicking of the three backs shown above in practice at South Bend. The Irish have won two games by the margin of a field goal and one by a point-after-touchdown. Kickers are, left to right, Lou Zontini, Harry Stevenson, and Bill Kelleher. Holding the ball are, left to right, Joe Theising, Steve Sitko and Bob Sagau.

Ohio State In Thrilling Win Over Gophers

MINNEAPOLIS—(AP)—Ohio State's roaring Buckeyes pitched three touchdowns passes Saturday and then resisted a Minnesota last quarter drive that netted one score and just missed another to win a topsy turvy ball game 23 to 20, before 55,000 fans.

Three points behind, the Golden Gophers drove desperately to the Scarlet and Grey's four-yard line with two minutes to play. On that play Minnesota was caught holding the penalized 15 yards. On the next play, fourth down, the Gophers drove to the center back the goal posts and dropped back the wrong way.

Ohio State thus became the first Big Ten team to defeat a Bernie Bierman coached Minnesota squad on its home field since 1932.

Mercedes Team Enters Matches

MERCEDES—With the placing of Mercedes Legion Junior Rifle Club in Class B, following the first of a series of rifle matches in the 1939-40 series, the week ending October 14, the local team, who has again entered the national bi-weekly matches for junior rifle clubs all over the United States, will go out to win the Class B trophy.

These matches are fired under the jurisdiction of the National Rifle Association, which governs all rules. Matches are put on each year, four matches being fired in the fall, the series running from October through December, and in a series of six matches in the spring, running from January through April. Approximately 300 rifle clubs take part. All clubs have an equal opportunity to win their particular class in which they are placed in, according to their shooting ability. These classes are A, B, C, and D. Loving cups are awarded winners in each class.

The Mercedes Junior Rifle Team won the first place class D cup for the 1937-38 series, and the first place in Class C in 1938-39 series. Registered targets are sent out to rifle clubs participating, which are returned to them for scoring. The recent match fired on the local range resulted in a score of 482 out of a possible 500, which placed the team in Class B. Billy Paul Green scored high with 99 out of a possible 100. Others scoring were Billy Bolter, 97; Bob Schaeffer, 96; Ralph Powell, 96; Bill Siebert, 94. The next match fired by the local team will be the week end of November 4.

MANHATTAN 7; AUBURN 0
NEW YORK—(AP)—Manhattan scored a touchdown on the second play of the fourth period and hung grimly onto that lead to defeat Auburn's widely traveled Plainsmen 7-0 in an intersectional football game played before 7,486 at the Polo Grounds Saturday.

Card-Bobcat Tie Battle Features Valley Football

EDINBURG—Rio Grande Valley football fans were treated to a spectacle of seeing two Class AA high school teams battle each other for an hour the past weekend and all for nothing.

The Edinburg Bobcats and Harlingen Cardinals met at Edinburg and at the end of the game the score was tied, 14 to 14. They made a complete deadlock of the game, the 20-yard penetrations were tied, 2 to 3, and the first downs were the same, 13 to 13.

These facts made the game a "no contest" affair according to a ruling of the district committee made at a meeting last spring. Unofficial record of the yardage gained by passes and rushing revealed that the figures stood 242 to 242.

Johnny Mikulik and Guerra scored the two touchdowns for Edinburg and Mikulik and Tony Poulos kicked the extra points. Frank Witherspoon chalked up the touchdowns for the Cardinals, making both by taking passes from Billy Kinney. Billy McDaniel accounted for the extra points, running over for one and kicking the other.

The Brownsville Eagles gave evidence of their strength when they journeyed to Robstown and handed

Violets Upset Carnegie Tech

NEW YORK—(AP)—Old Man Upset breezed through Yankee Stadium Saturday.

Aided and abetted by pass interceptions and a pair of classy quick-kicks, he sent New York University's footballers to a 6 to 0 victory over Carnegie Tech for one of the year's extra-special surprise packages.

A second period lateral pass from one reserve back, Jack Barnak, to another, Bill Galu, was good for 23 yards and the game's only touchdown, but that was the least of the developments that sent some 25,000 fans home poptoe.

Throughout the first half, the Violets played rings around the vaunted Tartans, who, not only were defeated and untied before Saturday, but hadn't even had their goal line crossed. The Skibos from Pittsburgh rated the East's No. 1 outfit last year, came back fighting in the second half, but the Old Man was still sitting on NYU's goal posts. Three times, Carnegie got down into scoring territory, and three times they just couldn't make it.

Tennessee Vols Show Greatness In Beating Tide

By KENNETH GREGORY
KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—(AP)—The golden-shirted Volunteers of Tennessee, displaying the precision and power of a great football machine, overwhelmed Alabama's Crimson Tide 21 to 0 Saturday before a crowd of close to 40,000.

It was Tennessee's 17th consecutive gridiron triumph. Few were accomplished with such a exhibition of power and speed as that which blasted a robust Alabama team that had removed Fordham from the national spotlight.

A great share of the glory was handed to a mite of a substitute halfback, sophomore Johnny Butler, who broke up a duel of punts to race 56 yards for the first touchdown.

That great second quarter run of the 160-pound "scat" back broke the ice and then the Volunteers, defending champions of the Southeastern Conference, roared on to a pair of touchdowns in the final period.

Tennessee made no sustained drives for its scores. After Butler's sensational run on which he dodged and sidestepped practically the entire Alabama team, halfback Bob Fox took the ball on a reverse to score from the Alabama 11 and substitute Buist Warren ran for the third on an off-tackle sneak from the Tide's 12.

Alabama managed but one lukewarm scoring threat just after the second period opened. A short punt by Tennessee's field general, George "Bad News" Cageto gave Alabama the ball at the Volunteers' 43. A 15-yard penalty and runs by halfback Paul Spencer carried to the 28. Checkmated by Tennessee's stubborn line, the Alabama quarterback called Hayward (Sandy) Sanford into the fray for an attempt at his field goal specialty. With the ball resting on the 37, Sanford's effort fell far short of the uprights.

The victory, featured by the great play of Tennessee's guards, Ed Molinski and Bob Sufferidge, and tackle Abe Shires, gave the old army tactician, Major Bob Neyland an edge over his old rival, Frank Thomas. Neyland-coached Tennessee eleven now have won four from Alabama against three defeats and one tie.

Cornell Trims Penn State 47-0

ITHACA, N. Y.—(AP)—Cornell's big team, amazingly rich in reserves, took a giant stride toward the Eastern football championship Saturday as it administered a brutal beating to Penn State, 47 to 0.

Entering the contest only a slight favorite, the Big Red poured on the power to bury the Nittany Lions under seven touchdowns, at least one in each period, and outclassed their adversaries every minute of the muddy way.

The Lyford Bulldogs won a Class B contest from the Edouard-Elsa Yellow Jackets, 39 to 0, at Lyford. The Bulldogs scored almost at will, Wilson scored three touchdowns, Duncan two and Ross and Terry one each.

Conference play continues this weekend with two Class AA and two Class A battles on the program.

North Carolina Tarheels Play Tulane To 14-14 Tie

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—The North Carolina Tarheels, who didn't know they were beaten, came sweeping from behind in the final quarter here Saturday to score two touchdowns through the air and tie Tulane, 14 to 14, in a game full of wild thrills for 34,000 spectators.

Both teams are undefeated this season.

With just 40 seconds to play, the fighting Tarheels made a valiant effort for victory with a field goal, but Harry Dunkle delayed on his 15-yard line and North Carolina took a five yard penalty for delaying the game. His kick that followed was wide.

The teams fought it out to a scoreless tie at half time although the constantly threatening Carolinians had taken the ball down close enough for two unsuccessful tries at field goals from placement.

Tulane smeared the Tarheels' passing attack in that period but after Tulane had scored in the third and again in the early fourth on power drives, Jim (Sweet) Lallane opened up with an amazing passing attack against a crumbling aerial defense and swept to two touchdowns in less than five minutes.

There were so many pass interceptions that it looked like a play the boys had practiced beforehand. There were blocked kicks, a voluntary safety, an Army passing attack that let lose 34 aerials and an Army running "attack" that was held to a net gain of 33 yards.

But emerging from the confusion was, chiefly, the picture of a Yale team better than it had been given credit for and an Army team without punch or cohesion. The Cadets could make gains only through the only three advances beyond mid-field, while the Elis themselves were going over for three touchdowns, each by a different route.

PURDUE WINS

Efforts To Extend Rincon Field Producing Area Failure

SECOND TEST IS UNDER WAY FOR OUTPOST

South Offset Well Is Abandoned

McALLEN—Efforts to extend the producing area of the new Rincon field in eastern Starr county about three and a half miles to the southwest had failed Saturday after the outpost well showed salt water but a second production test was under way.

One abandonment, a south offset to the discovery well at Rincon, was recorded, but three other tests in the same field were drilling. Four well were going down in the La Gloria field in southwestern Jim Wells County and drilling continued fairly steadily in other South Texas proven fields.

In the Rincon section, W. R. Davis and Company No. B-2 Slick Estate, about three and a half miles southwest of the field's crude discovery, made a Survey 538, gun-perforated with 20 shots at 4,170-90 feet. The well made an ungaged amount of oil and salt water with 150 pounds tubing working pressure on quarter-inch tubing choke. Operators set a cement retainer at 4,150 feet and will drill out cement, after squeezing the original perforations, for another production test of the upper part of the same sand at 4,171-55 feet.

Offset Makes Oil
A south offset to the field's crude discovery, Davis and Company No. A-1 Slick Estate, Survey 228, gun-perforated casing, which had been cemented at 4,005 feet, with 100 shots at 3,920-60 feet and the well made a little oil with salt water. Operators abandoned the hole, which had been drilled to 4,829 feet and salvaged 3,000 feet of casing.

Davis and Company No. B-3 Slick Estate, Survey 232, a west offset to the Rincon crude discovery, was coring in salt water sand at 4,490 feet after tapping the same sand at 4,461 feet. No important shows have been reported in this test.

Moves In Machinery
Davis and Company was moving in machinery for its No. A-2 Slick Estate, 1,300 feet from the south and 2,300 feet from the west tests of Survey 465, 2,300 feet southwest of the field's distillate discovery and 14,700 feet southwest of the crude discovery.

In the Sun field in northeastern Starr County, Sun Oil Company No. 3 George H. Speer, Survey 238, an inside well for the field, was showing gas, oil and salt water on production test through casing perforations in sand at 4,955-74 feet. The Speer sand in the field. The well was behaving somewhat differently from other tests in the field and will probably be worked over.

In the La Gloria field in southwestern Jim Wells County, Magnolia Petroleum Company had four wells on the way down.

Well Making Hole
Magnolia's No. 1 E. H. Stolze, 3,500 feet north of the field's distillate discovery, the Magnolia No. 1 Sam Maun, was drilling around 6,800 feet and coring several gas distillate sands past 5,200 feet. Location is in Lot 16, Block 10, La Gloria Subd.

Well Making Hole
Magnolia's No. 1 Horvath Brothers, Lot 5, Block 14, La Gloria, about 1,900 feet north of the distillate discovery, was making hole past 6,255 feet, while the same company's No. 1 W. C. Hornsby, Lot 17, Block 10, La Gloria, 2,600 feet north of distillate discovery, cemented 13 3-8 inch o.d. surface casing around 2,000 feet and was making hole at 2,240 feet.

The area's southern outpost, Magnolia's No. 1 Vivian Rust, Lot 14, Block 11, La Gloria, 3,500 feet southwest of the field's crude discovery well, the No. 1 Dale Maun, was making hole below 4,960 feet.

The new completions were reported in the Kelsey field in Jim Hogg-Brooks Counties.

Humble's No. 27 J. C. McGill, 1,000 feet north of discovery in La Blanca Grant, southwestern Brooks County, was reported to have gauged 140 barrels daily on 9-64 inch tubing choke with tubing working pressure of 230 pounds and closed-in casing pressure of 650 pounds from sand at 4,723-27 feet.

Humble Unit Finished
Humble's No. 29 J. C. McGill, 8,200 feet northeast of discovery and 933 feet north of production, also in La Blanca Grant, was reported completed in sand at 4,718-30 feet, but no gauge was available.

K. D. Harrison et al's No. A-2 F. G. Trevino, also in Survey 38 and 2,000 feet north of the field discovery, cored the sand at 3,049-62 feet and cemented casing at 3,046 feet. The well gauged 183 barrels daily on quarter-inch tubing choke with tubing working pressure of 180 pounds and 400 pounds closed in casing pressure.

BABS KEEPS SILENCE ON PERSONAL AFFAIRS

Countess Barbara Hutton Mdivani Haugwitz-Reventlow

Repatriation, Marriage, Strike Talks All Dodged By Countess

NEW YORK—(AP)—Countess Barbara Hutton Mdivani Haugwitz-Reventlow, heiress to 3-and-10-cent store millions, arrived on the Italian Liner Conte Di Savoia Saturday in an amiable mood and willing to discuss almost everything but her personal affairs. Then she was aloof and silent.

No, she would say nothing about the report she was going to seek repatriation. She renounced her citizenship a couple of years ago to become a Danish citizen.

No, she would say nothing about that other report that she was going to marry Robert Sweeney, 28-year-old American amateur golfer and investment broker who lives in London.

As for Sweeney, who was a passenger on the ship, he simply dodged reporters, hurried off the ship and, leaving his luggage to be cleared, dashed for the pier.

The countess, who said she would remain here for three or four months, brought with her her son, Lance, who is 3 1-2 years old.

Union employees of some of the Woolworth Stores, founded by her grandfather, were having a little demonstration outside the pier when the ship docked. A handful of men and women were carrying placards:

"Babs flees Europe, seeks peace. How about peace with the union?"

The countess made a wry face when she heard of this. "It always happens to me," she said, and there was a sardonic quality in her tones. "Welcome home! I don't think."

After a moment of sympathetic nodding, she said the notion that she owned enough stock in the company to control the management and dictate employee policy was erroneous.

"I own a few shares of stock, no more than thousands of others own," she said.

Of her father's domestic troubles, the countess would say nothing. The father, Franklin L. Hutton, advertised in a New York newspaper Wednesday that he would no longer be responsible for debts incurred by his wife, Irene C. Hutton.

TUCC GIVING ASSISTANCE

Use Of Same Name Is Essential

BROWNSVILLE — Continually on the lookout, the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission seeks to save employers time, trouble and expense in the submission of their necessary reports as required by law, Thurmond Krueger, district supervising examiner, declared Saturday.

Most recent efforts concerns submission of individual reports on employees, due quarterly to the commission, on form TUC 4-A. The quarterly report for July, August and September, is due October 31 as usual.

Often the commission has found that a single employer has reported the same employee under three, and even four or five, different names on quarterly reports.

The commission, as a consequence, found it necessary to submit corrected reports, consolidating all matters pertaining to the employee under one name.

This trouble, loss of time and money to both the employer and commission, can be eliminated if the employer, when reporting on an employee, uses the name appearing on that employee's social security card, and accepts no substitute, Krueger stated.

ACTION SEEN AS AFFECTING THEIR MOVES

Embargo Decision To Be Followed

By ANDRUE BERDING

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The small neutral states of Europe are watching the Senate debate on neutrality perhaps as closely as the large belligerents.

Their interests center on two main points—the arms embargo and shipping restrictions.

The northern neutrals like Norway, Denmark, Holland, Sweden, Belgium and Finland, together with Switzerland, already have an embargo on the shipment of arms to belligerents. Two, Sweden and Denmark, are, in proportion to their size, important arms manufacturers.

The neutrals' embargoes arise not from legislative action but from the fact that export licenses are required for arms shipments and such licenses are not now being granted for shipments to belligerents.

If the United States lifts her embargo, will the small European neutrals do likewise. They are not in the happy situation of the United States, 3,000 miles from the belligerents.

In the World War, the United States permitted British and French armed merchantmen to come into American ports, but little Holland barred them from her ports. She had a frontier contiguous to Germany and feared reprisals from her powerful neighbor.

There is every likelihood that the small neutrals will continue to keep their arms at home, no matter what the United States does.

The neutrals possessing large shipping lines like Norway, Holland and Sweden, are vitally interested in what congress intends doing about American shipping. If the United States were to bar all American ships from the ports of the belligerents, the ships of the neutrals would have an opportunity to assume a large part of the burden of carrying America's goods and taking goods of the belligerents to these shores.

During the World War, the small maritime neutrals insisted on conducting their commerce-carrying despite the dangers of submarines, mines, raiders and capture. Norway lost no less than 49 per cent of her merchant fleet in that conflict but continued her world shipping.

Police Captain H. D. Lozano Saturday was smiling from below a 48-hour growth, first stage in the life cycle of a mustache.

Ellis Perry also sported a shadowed upper lip, but was a little doubtful it would remain until Charro Days. Nor did he justify its presence in view of agitation he began Friday for the organization of an I. A. of B. and S.G.C., W.D.N.C.T.G.W., Inc.

(International Association of Blonde and Sour Grapes Charros, Who Do Not Choose To Grow Whiskers, Incorporated, according to Mr. Perry.)

Brownsville's Charro Days Court of the Brush has set December 15 as the official day to begin Charro Days beard. Last year "Sooners" were hailed before the court and fined for jumping the gun.

The fine isn't worrying Captain Lozano, who explained that they'll fine you anyway. He promised that by Charro Days, February 4, he'll have a mustache to be proud of, in full bloom and well groomed.

Mr. Perry, who probably will have two counts against him in the eyes of the Court of the Brush, seemed resigned to a fine or so also.

McALLEN—Twelve new families will plan to make their homes in McAllen were visited last week by Mrs. Ernest Hawley, city hostess, according to the report she tendered Saturday.

The new residents, most of them to be permanent, came here from six states including Illinois, New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma and the District of Columbia. Several have moved to McAllen from Lower Valley cities.

Every new resident in McAllen is visited shortly after his arrival by the hostess who welcomes each in the name of the city.

McALLEN—New officers of the Valley Pistol Club will be elected Monday at 7:30 p. m. at a membership meeting at the McAllen chamber of commerce building.

All members were urged Saturday by LeRoy W. Patton, secretary, to attend this annual membership meeting.

The club, organized several months ago, has aroused considerable interest among local and Valley sportsmen and women. Thornton Thacker is outgoing president.

Tom Mooney is shown in a Pittsburgh hospital bed after he was removed from a downtown hotel. Dr. Abraham Steinberg said Mooney was being treated for hemorrhages of a gastric ulcer which caused him to cancel a speaking tour. Nurse Nora McConnell is beside Mooney, who was pardoned in January after serving more than 20 years in prison in connection with the San Francisco Preparedness day bombing in 1916.

Fifteen boys from Hidalgo county also left this week, according to word received here.

Boys enlist in the CCC for a minimum period of six months, according to Ed Hockaday, Brownsville, agent for the state department of public welfare, but may remain in the civilian corps for as long as two years if they desire.

Each month $22 of the boys' monthly pay is sent to their parents, Mr. Hockaday said. A total of $2,250 will be received in the Valley each month from the three groups of CCC enrollees, $1,902 in Cameron county.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Red Wing, Minn., are in Dallas attending the State Fair and will arrive Tuesday to help the winter season started.

Examination of chamber of commerce tourist registrations shows that the season is starting earlier this year than it has in the past. Reputed cold northern weather is sending the winter visitors south.

TREASURE HUNTING.. Along the Valley's Main Street with Sue

That man's here again! ... And he's saying the same thing he said last year ... A few wise shoppers are already taking his advice ... For instance several people have already taken advantage of the convenient lay-a-way plan of purchasing Christmas gift watches and jewelry at M. T. BLACKIE and JEWELLER in the PALACE Theatre building, McAllen ... Elgin, Bulova and Hamilton watches.

Did you ever notice how many "personality rooms" that you see pictured in home-making magazines have linoleum floor coverings? ... The great variety in colors and patterns gives the best chance for expressing the personality of the person or persons who must live in the rooms ... You'll find colors and patterns to brighten the duller rooms in the large selection of linoleums at J. EDLSTEIN FURNITURE STORE, on the Highway in McAllen ... Also a large selection of Congolet rug.

Whether or not you're planning to paper your home or a room immediately you'll enjoy seeing the new wallpaper that have just arrived at KELLY'S PAINT STORE, 15 South 15th St., McAllen. Mrs. Kelly is always glad to have you come in to "just look." Both colors and patterns are exceptionally pretty ... Imperial and Blue Bonnet wall-papers and Wall-Tex decorative wall canvases ... And they're washable.

This 'N' That

By Minnie Gilbert

ABOUT this time of year and again in the spring we're impressed by the fact that yellow-blossoming flowers and shrubs seem to outnumber those of any other color.

Right now it's the esperanza trees that have our number one vote.

And no shrub we've seen has larger flower clusters than the esperanza Mrs. P. R. Foley has pruned into a slender, tall tree in her San Benito back yard.

IN this section today is the remainder of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Goffrey's article on bulbs and rhinoceroses. It is expert information and especially useful to experienced gardeners.

THOSE who are beginners in gardening in the Valley or who would like to do a little planting of annuals this fall, will find Mrs. J. W. Wade's list of annuals that should be planted now, published in Friday's Valley Morning Star, a handy guide.

A LIST of roses that thrive in the Valley, announced by Mrs. H. L. Hunter at the recent Harlingen Garden club meeting, is in the same issue.

Mrs. Wade is one of those gardening hobbyists with the "green touch" as the Mexicans call the gift for making plants grow.

Her bougainvillea hedge was grown from cuttings placed in a trench and is a thing of beauty. Similar success followed her planting a bougainvillea hedge for a neighbor.

She has no particular method, except to use wood cut from the middle of the branches and to water by sub-irrigation, never directly on the plants.

SANTA'S gift to milady this year may be a box of hose made of coal, air and water.

Actually, these new hose are being worn in South Texas and other parts of the country by women designated to report as to their durability, fit, and appearance.

The story is that the new synthetic yarn, which has been named nylon by its U. S. discoverer, has 80 times the strength of silk.

With a war on, price of imported silk has increased; so if claims for the new type hose are borne out by tests, discriminating shoppers may be insisting at the hose counter, "size nine, all coal; no silk, please."

SINCE Americans have been rushing home from foreign lands the usual eye-appeal pictures, presenting a pretty girl perched on the ship rail with a goodly amount of silk stockings exposed, have given place to rather drab snapshots of refugees.

Photographers in the trade and among themselves, usually call a picture which has leg interest a "chase cake."

CUPID has scored another hit in Valley Extension Service circles. Miss Edmond Earle O'Neal, Wilcox County home demonstration agent, has resigned her post to begin life as a bride on a farm in Western Kansas.

It's easy to understand why the agents, who have qualified as experts on homemaking, should receive the special interest of prospective bridegrooms.

But, it's a little puzzling why more Extension Service workers in the Valley forfeit their jobs to matrimony than agents in other parts of the state.

IT sounds like the Cameron county home demonstration club have something in their live-at-home program that's being inaugurated this fall.

Each club designates one club to serve as living at home demonstrator.

At the end of the year she will exhibit records and preserved foods to demonstrate how much of the family expense can be met by foods grown and preserved at home. Garden patches, once rare in the Valley, are becoming more frequent.

But there is still the major problem, arising from the fact that this is an irrigated country, to be met. The smallest area for which a grower may order water is an acre, regardless of whether or not water is required only to a half dozen rows of beans or tiny square of squash.

Of course, few of the vegetables need water at the same time.

Thus, irrigation, and not the time and effort required in caring for a small garden patch, is the real reason Valley farm tables are as well supplied by their own produce as in many other areas.

But, in spite of this handicap, many farm families are finding home garden patches worthwhile. No doubt others will. And we'll predict that these live-at-home demonstrators will supply some valuable suggestions a year from now.

Preservation of Flower Bulbs For Next Season's Planting Told in Helpful Discussion

(Editor's Note—Below is the second and concluding half of a discussion of bulbs and corms and control of diseases affecting these flowers varieties in the Valley prepared by Dr. and Mrs. George Godfrey of Weslaco. The first section of the article was published in this section last Sunday.)

Replanting

For the home gardener, the best practice appears to be to remove bulbs from the soil soon after the plants have died down (about mid-summer), and to replant the separated bulbs and corms almost immediately. The less drying-out they are subject to, the better. They will then go through their period of dormancy in the ground, without drying out, and will be in the best of condition to go into the ground and flowering at the normal season. Commercially, the bulbs are often held in cool moist storage for a considerable period before planting. This makes for more uniformity in blooming. But it is more or less of a gamble at best, for rate of growth depends upon soil temperature, and it is hard to predict in advance when planting should be done to have blossoms at the right stage for Easter.

Lily mosaic is probably the worst Creole Lily disease. It is characterized by short linear lines or streaks in the leaves of yellow color, and these later become brown. A diseased plant may even produce flowers, but the mere fact of their having mottled leaves makes them unsightly. For the welfare of the planting stock as a whole, it is best to rogue out and destroy diseased plants. Every effort should be made to eliminate aphids by frequent spraying or dusting with good contact insecticides, for these insects will transmit the disease from diseased to healthy plants. If mosaic plants are permitted to stand, gradually all stock will become infected and will deteriorate seriously in quality. Black scale, marked by brown to almost black lesions on the outer scales, is sometimes found on the bulbs at planting time, and it carries over from year to year and may become worse. The cause is not fully known but it is probably due to a fungus of the Penicillium group. A sure control is not known. Planting only clean bulbs in new soil is the best insurance.

Amaryllis

The amaryllis, a native of the tropics, is a true bulb plant. The correct scientific name is Hippeastrum. Hippeastrum Johnsonii, the red flaming species, called St. Joseph's Lily is a prolific grower and a beautiful plant. The amaryllis Show in the greenhouses of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C. is a marvellous display of gorgeous colors, always with some newly developed variety shown for the first time. Bulbets grow on the side of the large bulb (which is 3 or 4 inches in diameter), and can be taken off for propagation. Bulbs can be transplanted under Valley conditions in September. Plantings from September to January do not interfere with the uniformity of the blooming period which is in March. The bulbs should be divided every second year, during January. Plant 18 inches apart with the base of the bulb 8 inches deep.

Hybrid amaryllis, sold as such, will come in all shades and variations, and one may expect to get an interesting variety of flowers with such stock. Ed Boyd at Linn, Texas (north of Edinburg) will sell these bulbs at wholesale prices to any garden club as a whole.

Diseases are not much of a factor with amaryllis. Sometimes a mosaic, similar to that in the Eastern Lily occurs, but it is less pronounced in symptoms, and less injurious to the plant.

Calla

We can have calla lilies here if we are willing to plant them each year with new stock. Apparently they do not carry over well from year to year. Calla Godfrey, does well in the winter months. The "Baby Calla" is a sport from Godfrey.

Narcissus
The paper white Narcissus does well here, an dcan be planted from now on. It flowers 120 days after planting, old stock is not necessary. Other members of the Narcissus group, such as daffodils and jonquils do not do well in a region so far south without very special forcing methods, with a long period of bedding in cold soil to make a vigorous root system. (The same applies, incidentally, to Hyacinth and Tulips.)

Tuberose

The tuberose does very well under Valley conditions. It is best planted in January. The bulbs should be divided yearly. They flower about 120 days after planting—more or less, depending upon the season. The tuberose has one serious pest, the root knot nematode. It not only gets into the roots, causing the usual root galls, but into the lower portion of the bulb itself.

Iris

Botanically speaking, irises are divided into two distinct divisions, according to the nature of the plant—those with rhizomes and those with bulbs.

Bulbous iris. The bulbous irises are grouped according to the origin of the varieties. Those of most use to the American grower are the so-called Dutch, Spanish and English Bulbous Irises. The Spanish iris is a strain of more or less uncertain origin. They embrace many color forms, and are the result of years of patient evolution at the hands of European growers. The typical wild form of Iris xiphium, which is the accepted original species, is blue. "King of Blues" is a favorite variety. Iris tingitana (Wedgewood) is the earliest and largest. Iris filifolia variety Imperator is another popular blue form.

Dutch iris, Iris xiphium hybridum. Variety "Yellow Queen," a beautiful large golden yellow variety is popular. There are many other fine varieties including blues and whites.

English iris. There are at least ten good varieties. They bloom mostly later than the Dutch and Spanish. The English iris simply will not grow down here, so it is "out" in so far as our planting list is concerned.

Storing Bulbs

Culture. Bulbous irises in general should be left in the ground from six to eight weeks after flowering, without too much moisture. They are then harvested, and after a brief period of drying in the shade, the tops are pulled off and the bulbs stored in flats out of the drought. Covering them with dry sand will help to prevent too great drying. Further procedures are much the same as with gladioli. A brief period of cool storage prior to planting will make for more uniform flowering. Facilities for this are available at Donna and at Harlingen. A period of 4 to 5 days should be allowed for the bulbs to warm up, between cold storage and planting.

Bulbous irises do not like shade, so plant in the open. A good fertile soil is desirable. Prepare the beds well in advance of planting. A commercial fertilizer containing phosphorus, such as ammonium phosphate, placed in the ground well below the planting position at least two weeks before planting will make for good growth and flowering. Have plenty of moisture in the ground at planting time, but avoid keeping the soil too continuously wet around the bulbs. October 15 is a good time to plant, and flowering may be expected 64, 90 or 100 days later. A succession of plantings may be made if desired.

The worst diseases that may be encountered are the bulb rot, which may occur during the season, or after flowering. Southern blight, Sclerotium rolfsii, causes early death of tops and gradually increasing decay of the bulbs. It is distinguished by cottony white fungus growth around the plants at the soil line and a little later the formation of a first white, then brown shot-like "sclerotia," which are the resting stage of the fungus. No spores are borne. When the disease is first seen in the bed, progress can be stopped by drenching the soil with mercury bichloride 1 to 1000 (1 ounce to 7½ gallons of water).

Bacterial soft rot sometimes occurs in the soil after blooming, reducing the number of bulbs for next year's planting. It is not common unless the stock is weak, which may be the case if the bulbs are imported from an entirely different environment. If signs appear, harvest early, dry, then soak in Semesan 1 to 400 for ½ hour, dry, and store.

Rhizome Iris

This is the common iris that one sees so abundantly in all parts of the north. As everyone knows there is the greatest variety of colors, and

Review Club Continues Study Topic

BROWNSVILLE—Further study of early English literature was given at the Friday morning meeting of the Literature and Arts Review club when Mrs. Thurman A. Kinder, Jr. and Mrs. R. A. Porter were speakers at the home of Mrs. James L. Abney.

types, and new varieties are being created by fanciers every year. As propagation is by division, every new creation can be increased "ad lib."

There are two main types, the "apogous" or beardless, and the "pogous" or bearded irises. The first group is a large one and contains many diverse forms. The most important garden examples, are the Siberian and Japanese irises, and that is one reason why there are not very successful here.

Bearded iris will grow here with proper care. We were fortunate enough to get 45 different varieties last year, and even though the roots were small, many of them bloomed the first season. All but a very few survived the summer without shade, so we have great hopes for the future. All we need is a good rain right now. We are trying to keep the soil on the acid side, or at least less alkaline than most Valley soils, and using acid-forming fertilizers as side dressings.

Other home-gardeners in the Valley also have some good bearded iris, so we are quite confident that they will succeed here. One thing we need not fear is a "cold snap" for this plant being primarily a northern ornamental is fully resistant to cold.

A refreshment course was served to the above and Mesdames W. W. DeCell, Mrs. L. T. Hawkins, Mrs. L. C. Rushton, Mrs. A. J. Brower.

Print Exhibit Slated

BROWNSVILLE—Much interest is being manifested in the exhibit of prints and kodachrome slides to be shown Monday evening by Glenn Dennis at the parish house as a benefit for the music of the Church of the Advent (Episcopal).

Mrs. James L. Abney is chairman of the committee in charge of the event. Others selling tickets which are priced at 25 cents, are Mesdames Penrose W. Hirst, Joe Vivier, Jr., Marshall Watson, James A. Maxwell, Jr., Frank L. Davis, R. B. Creager, Fred Rustberg, Sr., Lula Reed, and Theodore Serafy.

The prints may be inspected as early as 7:30 o'clock, and the kodachrome slides will be shown at 8:15 o'clock. One of the prints, 11 by 14 inches, will be given as a door prize.

Many of the prints are in the usual grey photographic tones, but others were tinted by Mrs. Dennis, and some were taken on color film. There will be two large prints, 16 by 20 inches, colored by Mrs. Dennis. One of these is a street scene in Taxco and another is of a charro on horseback.

One of the loveliest of the kodachrome slides is that showing the shrine of the Church of the Guadalupe in Mexico City. The slide will show the picture of the Virgin surrounded by a crown which figures prominently in the story of the miracle. Among other interesting slides will be pictures of the theatre and museums. One of these is a slide of the murals painted by Diego Rivera, which were turned down by the Rockefeller Center because of their communistic tendencies. These are in the Belles Artes.

Outstanding among the prints is a moonlight scene in Taxco, a five-minute exposure. In this print, there are tiny smudges showing where the stars moved.

Babson Is Amazed At Speed Of Nation's Business Upturn

MONTH SHOWS BEST YET FOR ANY OCTOBER

22 Per Cent Gain Is Seen Over 1938

By ROGER W. BABSON

BABSON PARK, Mass.—Business this month is the best for any October in 10 years. The United States has experienced one of the most unusual boomlets in its history in the last two months. Figures gathered from all over the country, which I found on my desk on my return from the Far East, tell a spectacular story. Business is now 22 per cent above a year ago and within two per cent of the 1937 peak.

I can hardly believe that business has soared so rapidly. Yet, the figures which I have at hand do not lie. They show that textile mills, automobile factories, machine tool shops, steel mills, railroads, power plants, lumber camps, and shipyards are bustling with activity. When I sailed out of the Golden Gate on August 25, the temperature of business was 97 degrees according to my Babson chart. Today it is 112 degrees compared with the 1937 high of 114 degrees and the 1929 all-time peak of 122 degrees.

Freight Gains Spectacular

Here are the facts concerning the nation's leading industries: (1) Textiles: Cotton mills have boosted schedules 15 per cent in the past eight weeks. Woolen factories are operating day and night. The rayon industry has shot ahead. The textile industry as a whole, while not the most active of the nation's money businesses, is flirting with its 1937 highs.

(2) Railroads: A spectacular increase has taken place in railroad traffic. Weekly freight car loadings have jumped to 635,000 from 600,000 in the Labor Day week. With the exception of one or two weeks in 1937, railroad traffic is the highest since the lush days of a decade ago. This tremendous increase in the transportation of goods simply means that there has been a huge gain in the amount of business being transacted.

Car Sales Better

(3) Automobiles: This is normally the season when automobile assembly lines speed up, so the rise in weekly motor output from 12,000 cars before Labor Day to around 90,000 at present breaks no records. New car sales are reported to be exceptionally good and motor-makers are boosting their production schedules faster than is customary.

(4) Building: Latest figures on home building show a splendid gain over the faltering figures of the late summer and a 30 per cent step-up over a year ago. Moreover, the building upswing has injected new life into the lumber camps, where orders are running far ahead of both the "cut" and shipments.

Sharp Steel Rise

(5) Steel: Activity in this industry is accurately measured by the weekly rate of operations. The sharpest rise in steel operations in history has taken place since August. Starting at around 60 per cent of capacity in the Labor Day week, they have skyrocketed to around 90 per cent—an increase of 30 points in less than two months! Reports indicate that thousands of workers have returned to their jobs in the steel towns.

(6) Coal: For two years the soft coal industry has been "in the doghouse." Ever since the 1937 boom back-fired, the coal mines have been limping along at about 60 per cent of normal. Within six short weeks, daily coal output has come up 25 per cent. The recent report stating that the first barge load of coal sent to Europe in 12 years has just left the United States provides a clue as to the war's effect on this industry.

(7) Mining: Copper sales in September were the highest on record. Metal prices have been marked up 25 to 30 per cent. Operations at the copper, zinc, lead, iron and other mines are marching toward the 1937 levels. Meanwhile, activity in the petroleum industry as a whole is at an all-time high.

Utilities Smash Records

(8) Utilities: The measure of activity in the electric industry is the weekly power consumption figure reported in the newspapers. Readers who follow this total know that more electric power is being used today than at any time in the history of the country! In almost every week since Labor Day con-

Still Fighting Communists

Perspiring freely as he testified, Fritz Kuhn, leader of the German-American Bund, told the Dies un-American committee that the Bund still is fighting Communists in this country although it wholly approves the new Russo-German pact. Both hands outstretched, Kuhn leaned forward in reply to Rep. Joe Stearnes, (D-Ala.), who asked the question, and said: "I'm surprised at you. You a Congressman and don't know any better than that."

Valley Loses Chance For Good Publicity

McALLEN — Absence of lemons from the Lower Rio Grande Valley at the Texas State Fair, Dallas, enabled a California exhibitor to tell visitors the Valley doesn't produce lemons commercially, according to information received here Saturday.

Valley lemon growers were to have supplied exhibit fruit for the Dallas booth but did not, local chamber of commerce officials said.

Two guest speakers addressed crowds at Dallas the past week. They were Moulton (Ty) Cobb of Westlaco, radio commentator, and C. E. Kern, annual Valley visitor. Cobb led the group in singing "Our Valley Home" and then presented his father and Kern.

After arrangements were made to get lemons before the fair opened, two telegrams were sent, and finally one box of spoiled lemons were sent, the report from Dallas said. In the face of this, a California exhibitor near the Valley booth was demonstrating California lemons and claiming the Valley didn't produce lemons of any consequence, and the Valley booth did not have any lemons to disprove his statements.

Several chamber of commerce officials expressed gratitude to the citrus growers who helped, but said they couldn't understand why some growers or associations not only did not cooperate to advertise their own business, but made two chambers of commerce pay $8 for four boxes of grapefruit and sumption of electricity has set a new all-time peak.

(9) Machine Tools: The machinery and machine tool industry is small compared with such giants as building, railroads, and steel. Nevertheless, it is a vital barometer of activity in the labyrinth of industries such as cutlery, business machines, aviation, radio, hardware, railroad equipment, and the like. Hence, it is very encouraging to learn that machine tool orders in recent weeks have smashed all previous records!

This is the most bullish report on American business that I have been able to write for two years. There is no forecasting in what I have said above. All statements are facts concerning what has happened. Whether or not activity can continue at the present pace is another question and one which is difficult to answer right now. Some observers believe that this boom was touched off by the war and will fold up like an accordion if hostilities are suddenly halted. Others insist that the tremendous step-up in industrial activity was already under way this summer and would have taken place, though less rapidly, war or no war.

I have not had time to study the situation and take any position on this question. Perhaps the answer is a middle-ground—somewhere between the above two views. However, unless retailers boost their merchandising efforts and keep their cash registers clanging, the industrial boom will peter out. In order to maintain our current pace, raw materials and goods which have been purchased in anticipation of higher war prices, must move along to the consumer so that new orders can be placed with manufacturers and raw material suppliers. A few weeks should tell the story.

ADVERTISING, HOUSING HELP TOURIST CROP

Vickers Sees Valley's Future Needs

McALLEN—More national advertising and more adequate facilities for new arrivals after they reach the Texas border are two developments the Rio Grande Valley might undertake to expand its tourist industry.

That is the claim laid down by Paul T. Vickers, manager of the McAllen chamber of commerce and a specialist in tourism for the past five years.

"I recommend more national advertising, such as sending a competent person into the Middle West for several weeks to spread propaganda," said Vickers in outlining what he thinks the Valley should undertake toward encouraging heavier winter travel into this section.

Need Low-Price Homes

"We should also press for the construction of more low-price cottages, built so economically that the owner can get adequate returns even though the cottages be occupied but five or six months per year."

In addition to those proposals, the McAllen man sees the need for purchase of more photographs on Valley scenes and events, these to be sent to newspapers in the home towns of visitors; intensification of the present tourist entertainment program in the Valley, along with construction of more amusement facilities; and more pride on the part of Valley people in spreading news of the attractions of this section to relatives and friends throughout the United States.

In McAllen proper, Vickers would speed civic leaders toward construction of a permanent tourist clubroom for day and evening use, "perhaps an upper story of the chamber of commerce building." Directors of the chamber are understood to have talked this proposal on a preliminary basis.

Biggest Net Cash Crop

"Few realize that in 1938 the second biggest net cash crop in the Valley was the tourist crop," the chamber official asserted. "All types of vegetables, only, brought a bigger net cash return than tourists—citrus and cotton both bringing bigger gross returns, but tourists bringing in more new money."

"An actual canvass shows that couples spend from $90 to $400 per month, but with an average of $60 per month for trailblazers, they in one banner week in McAllen last year spent along $6,000."

M'ALLEN STARTS WORK FOR ROSE CUP AWARD

McALLEN—"Clean-up Week" in McAllen in preparation for the Julia Cameron Montgomery Rose cup campaign will start November 12.

Only Edinburg, Pharr and McAllen have entered the competition so far, but other cities are still urged to enter. Cities of 5,000 or over will pay $250 to get into the campaign and cities of under 5,000 will pay $1 each. Entries will be received until November 1 at the McAllen chamber of commerce.

One representative each from the McAllen Garden Club, Lions, Kiwanis, and Rotary clubs and Business and Professional Women's club will be asked to help conduct the clean-up campaign. Henry Malau and William Hartshorn of the city will be asked to aid.

Three major reasons for pushing the campaign, Merts said, are beautification to please the property owner, sanitation, and to make the city attractive for tourists.

PHARR—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clines, of St. Louis, Mo., arrived here Friday for an indefinite stay.

PHARR—Mrs. E. E. Draeger left Tuesday for San Antonio, where she will be a delegate at the Methodist conference.

'Babes In Arms' Features Large Cast Of Juvenile Talent; Picture Is Now Showing At Arcadia

MICKEY ROONEY and Judy Garland are aided and abetted by what is possibly the largest group of juvenile talent ever presented on the screen in the picturization of the sensational Broadway musical "Babes in Arms," currently featured Sunday and Monday at the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen.

"Babes in Arms" is one of those stories that falls naturally into the musical category of screen entertainment. It has abundant opportunity for music, song and dancing, logically fitted into a plot that is filled with pathos, comedy, and at times, real drama. Set in the period that marked the passing of vaudeville, it tells of the brave attempt of a group of former headliners to rescue their fleeting fame and fortune with a comeback tour, and the coming to their rescue of their talented children, boys and girls born to the stage. Familiar with the modern trend, they stage a show which attracts the attention of a producer and they land in a big Broadway revue.

In addition to the stellar Rooney-Garland team, the featured cast includes, Betty Jaynes and Douglas McPhail, singing discoveries of Jeanette MacDonald, will make you agree with Miss MacDonald that they are potential singing stars of tomorrow. June Priesser, youthful dancing sensation of recent "Ziegfeld Follies" shows, makes her debut on the screen. John Scheffeld, better known as "Tarzan, Jr.," appears in his second picture role. Leni Lynn, the little Passaic, N. J. singing Cinderella, also makes her motion picture bow. Adult stars in the picture include Charles Winninger, Guy Kibbee, Grace Hayes and Rand Brooks.

'HOLLYWOOD CAVALCADE' FILMED IN COLOR

FILMED in color, the story of motion picture history, from Mack Sennett's bathing beauties and the Keystone Cops to world premiers, is told to highly entertaining results in "Hollywood Cavalcade," co-starring Alice Faye and Don Ameche.

The screen's famous King of Comedy, Mack Sennett, acted as technical adviser and also plays himself in a scene in the picture with Buster Keaton, Ben Turpin and Chester Conklin re-enact their old brand of slapstick and custard-pie comedy.

Once again the alluring Sennett bathing beauties stroll by famous old Castle Rock on Santa Monica beach, as they did back in 1916. But this time, the scantily-clad brigade boasts the presence of Alice Faye among their number.

Don Ameche, who plays the director-hero of "Hollywood Cavalcade," will recall to mind, with his riding togs and leather puttees, the great megaphone-wielders of the 'teens and early '20s, while Stuart Erwin carries on the tradition of the demon cameraman who wore his cap backwards, and Donald Meek plays a pioneer producer.

The days when Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford ruled Hollywood's social life will be recalled by many when Alice Faye marries her leading man, Alan Curtis, and they become known as the "Lovers of the World."

"Hollywood Cavalcade" is currently featured Sunday and Monday at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

GARY COOPER STARRS IN 'THE REAL GLORY'

GARY COOPER, in his latest starring picture "The Real Glory" offers movie-goers a screen fare of the fast-moving action type with plenty of suspense and red-blooded romance.

Unfolding a thrilling and exciting tale of the Philippine Scouts and their heroic bravery at the conclusion of the Spanish-American War when the Philippines were over-run with insurrectionists and religious fanatics the film presents David Niven, Andrea Leeds and Reginald Owen at the head of a large supporting cast.

In the leading role, Cooper again returns to the outdoor type which has made him one of the screen's top favorites. He portrays a doctor who has joined the army and comes to the Philippines to sharpen his experience, but he runs into situations that call for more than just surgery and he meets them and then some with the Cooper type of man, living up to the slogan of "always outnumbered but never out-fought."

"The Real Glory" is scheduled for current showing Sunday and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco, and at the Palace Theatre in McAllen, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

'HONEYMOON IN BALI' IS ROMANTIC HIT

THE SCREEN'S romantic comedy "Honeymoon in Bali," is a decided hit with Madeleine Carroll and Fred MacMurray, as co-stars turning in brilliant, humorous and thoroughly realistic performances.

In the story Miss Carroll is cast as an executive of a Fifth Avenue department store, who falls in love with MacMurray, an adventurer returned from Bali. But she refuses to admit that she is in love with him. Fred does his best to convince her that love has a place in her scheme of things, but when she finds herself breaking down, she flees to Nassau for a vacation.

The comedy and romance go into high gear when Fred goes back to Bali, and Madeleine, realizing that she loves him, follows him there, only to learn that he plans to marry another girl!

"Honeymoon in Bali" is currently featured Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen.

GARY COOPER in "The Real Glory" scheduled for current showing Sunday and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the Palace Theatre in McAllen, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Casts And Forecasts

THE CASHIERS and the girls and boys on the door who greet you on attending the theatre, are called upon countless times in their daily duties to answer numerous questions, asked by patrons, regarding pictures and screen personalities. The following are a few of the queries passed along to us for answering.

A question which is asked almost every day is: "When will 'Gone With the Wind' be shown in the Valley?" The answer—the latest booking schedules do not list a release date for this picture. It may be 30 days and it may be six months.

Other questions asked are as follows:

"How does the 'March of Time' get pictures so quickly from all over the world?" The answer to the question is that "March of Time" has staff cameramen in almost every country who take thousands of feet of film each month from which the editors of this timely subject select only an approximate two thousand feet for each issue.

"How long is an average motion picture?" The average feature picture itself is from seven to nine thousand feet in length and is projected on the screen at ninety feet per minute. However there are exceptions to all rules. As an example, Frank Capra's latest picture, "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" is approximately twelve thousand feet in length, running more than two hours.

"What is Oomph?" Look back a few years for the answer to this one. Way back yonder there was a redhead by the name of Clara Bow and she was said to have "It, and how." Now we have Alan Sheridan who is said to have "Oomph," "but definitely." It's the same thing.

One regular question asked is by a little blonde headed newsboy who wants to know almost every day when a Gene Autry picture is coming. Your answer, young fellow, is that every time Autry makes a picture we'll show it.

Another juvenile patron wants to know why a Mickey Mouse or a Donald Duck cartoon isn't shown every Saturday. The answer is that Walt Disney doesn't make that many cartoons.

Garfield is one of the nobodies, a boy just released from prison where he served a sentence for a crime of which he was innocent. Arrested for vagrancy and sent to a work farm, he meets the daughter of the brutal foreman and falls in love with her. They run into difficulty again when the foreman dies and the young couple are accused of murder, but the girl makes her plea in court for the man she loves and the world gives them a break.

Heading their supporting cast will be Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, Billy Halop, Bobby Jordan, Charles Lane, Henry Armetta and Stanley Ridges.
